A COLLECTION OF Private Devotions; IN THE PRACTICE OF The Ancient Church, CALLED The Hours of Prayer.

As they were after this manner published by Authority of Q. ELIZ. 1560.

TAKEN

Out of the Holy Scriptures, the Ancient Fathers, and the Divine Service of our own Church.

LONDON,

Printed by R.N. for R. Royston, Bookseller to His most Sacred MAJESTY. 1672.

of Williams, Cheltenham.

The Collection of private devotions (being the first intire intire volume) is a new Edition of Bp Cosins his book under the same title, first printed 12° 1627. and for which he was greatly persecuted under the pretence that he was ~~popishly~~ affected.
The contents of his Collection are however strictly protestant and, although, in these latter days, the divisions of the day into hours do sound like the customs of the church of Rome, they are in reality strictly in accordance with the practice of the first Reformers.

This book is said to have been written or compiled, at the command of King Charles I. for the use of those Protestants who waited on Queen Henrietta Maria, and by way of preserving them from the taint of certain Popish books of devotion, supposed to be left about the Royal apartments with some proselyting design.

It was particularly obnoxious to the Papists, and the Puritans eagerly seized on it as an opportune vehicle by which to attack Cosins which was done, with great virulence, by Burton & Prynne, & the whole of that faction.

The second & third tracts in the vol. are also very rare - consisting of the first Editions of both parts of Bp. Duppa's Devotions printed in 1673 The first part was published as without the Bp's name, - "by an humble penitent", but the author's proper name & title were affixed to the second.

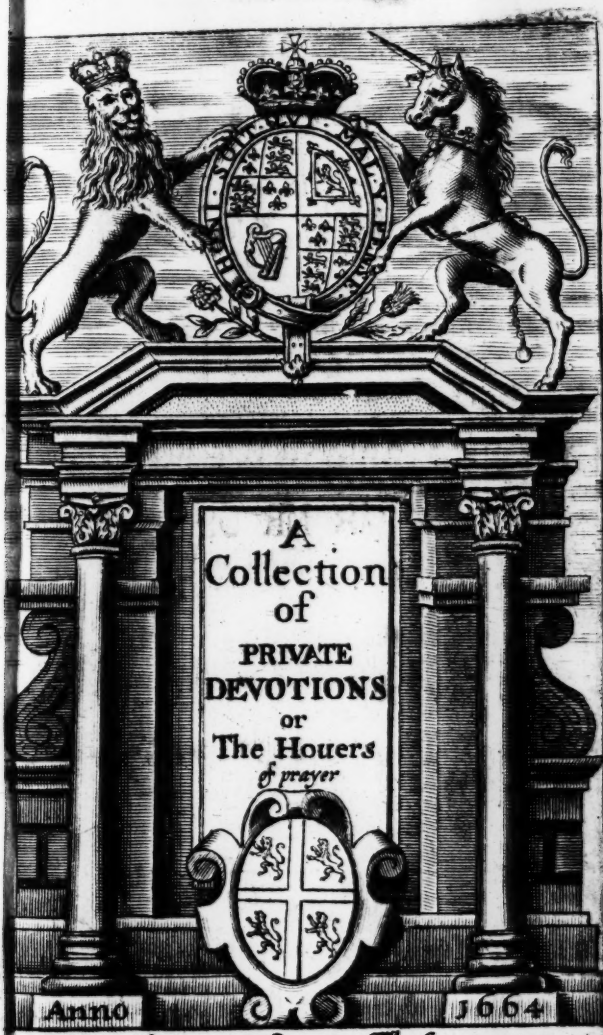

Wood had only seen an Edit. in 1674 - the present was not known to him. He tells us that the publisher was Ben. Parry of Corpus. Ath. Oxon. 3. 543.

Pray without ceasing: 1. Thess. 5. 17. v.

BRITISH MUSEUM

THE PREFACE TOUCHING PRAYER, AND The Forms of Prayer:

The Fountain and Well-ſpring from which they all proceed, being that perfect Form of Prayer which Chriſt taught his Diſciples.

FOR the good and welfare of our Souls, there is not in Chriſtian Religion any thing of like continual uſe and force throughout every hour of our lives, as is the ghoſtly Exerciſe of Prayer and Devotion.

Which the holy Apoſtles obſerving their Lord and Maſter ſo frequently to uſe, in the (a) Morning before day, in the (b) Evening before night, and otherwhiles to ſpend the (c) whole Night in Prayer, accounted it their duty alſo to be followers of his example and practice, as being a matter of high importance, and great benefit thereby to be obtained.

(a) S. Mark 1. 35.
(b) S. Matth. 14. 23.
(c) S. Luke 6. 12.

And therefore they addreſſed themſelves to Him, deſiring Him to teach them how to pray, as S. John the Baptiſt had alſo taught his Diſciples. For which end and purpoſe, our Saviour taught and (d) preſcribed them a Form of Prayer, ſo abſolute and ſo perfect, as never was the like made before; which, from him who made it then, was ever afterward called the Lord's Prayer.

(d) S. Luke 11. 2. S. Mat. 6. 9.

A Prayer, whereby we have not only Chriſt's Name to countenance our ſutes, (in whoſe name if we ask any thing, as we ought to do, he hath aſſured red us in his Holy (e) Gospel that we shall obtain it;) but Christ's own word also, who himself is our (f) Advocate, and being best acquainted with the Laws and Phrases of his Father's Court, hath both for matter and form drawn up such supplications for us as will be most available and prevalent with Almighty God. And though men should speak with Angels tongues, yet words that will be more pleasing to the ears of God than those which the Son of God did compose cannot possibly be uttered; nor can any Prayers be so well framed as those that are made by his blessed Pattern.

(e) S. John 16.23.

(f) 1 S. John 2. 1.

It is for this cause called by the Fathers (g) The Prayer of all Prayers, and the Rule or Square whereby all our Petitions are to be formed; having likewise been thus used in all ages of the Church, not only as a common part of her Prayers and Service, but but as the chief and fundamental part of them, the Ground whereupon she builds, the Pattern whereby she frames, and the Complement wherewith she perfects all the rest of her heavenly Devotions, framing them all as this is framed, with much efficacy, though not with any superfluity of words.

Thus we begin at this day all our Church-services with the Lord's Prayer, and lay it as a foundation whereon to build the rest of our Petitions that follow, sometimes continuing (as after the Creed) and sometimes perfecting (as after the blessed Sacrament) our most holy Devotions with it: thereby supplying with the fulness of that one whatsoever may be defective in all our other Prayers. Præmissâ legitimâ Oratione (saith Tertul.) quasi fundamento accidentium, &c. [This is the Law we go by, the ground-work and the Guide of all those holy Prayers

ers that Chriſtians uſe to make.]

A part of which ancient Piety are theſe daily Devotions and Prayers that hereafter follow; Prayers which, after the ſame manner and diviſion of * Hours as here they are, having heretofore been publiſhed among us by High and Sacred Authority, are now alſo renewed, and more fully ſet forth again, as for many other, ſo chiefly for theſe four Reaſons.

* Horarium Regiâ authoritate editum, &c. The Horary ſet forth with the Queen's Authority 1560 and renewed 1573. Imp. with privilege at London by William Seers.

1. The Firſt is, to continue and preſerve the authority of the ancient Laws, and old godly Canons of the Church, which were made and ſet forth for this purpoſe, that men, before they ſet themſelves to pray, might know what to ſay, and avoid, as near as might be, all extemporal effuſions of irkſome and indigeſted Prayers, which they uſe to make, that herein are ſubject to no good order or form of words, but pray both what, and how, and when they liſt. Therefore fore among the Eccleſiaſtical Laws made in the time o Carolus Magnus we find this to be one; Orationes, quæ ab Eccleſia probatæ non ſunt, rejiciantur. (i.) [Let no Prayers be uſed but thoſe which are allowed by the Church. Microl. de Eccleſ. obſer. cap. 4.] Conc. Carthag. 3. Can. 23. Quaſcunque ſibi preces aliquis deſcribit, non eis utatur, niſi priùs eas cum inſtructioribus contulerit. (i.) [What Prayers ſoever any man hath framed for himſelf, let him firſt acquaint thoſe that are wiſe and learned with them, before he preſumeth to uſe them.]

And the reaſon is given in the 12. Canon of the Milevitan Council, which was alſo repeated in the 70. Canon of the Council of Africk, Nè forte aliquid contra fidem, vel per ignorantiam vel per minus ſtudium, ſit compoſitum. (i.) [Leſt either through ignorance, or through leſs care than is fit, any thing be

ſaid which is not conſonant to the Faith of Chriſt's Church.]

And that men may not think theſe Rules are to be applied to Publick Prayers only, and not to Private; let them weigh thoſe words in the Council of Carthage, [Quaſcunque ſibi preces, &c. The Prayers which a man makes for himſelf, &c.] And let them conſider, that when Chriſt had bidden us enter into our chamber and pray privately, preſently he ſets us a form to pray by even there in ſecret, S. Matth. 6. 6, 9. By which paſſages thoſe Prayers are chiefly allowed and recommended unto us, (for all ſudden and godly ejaculations are not to be condemned) which with good advice and meditation are framed beforehand by them that beſt know what belongs thereunto: That ſo through this means the worthieſt part of our Chriſtian duty to God ward might might ſuffer no ſuch ſcandal and diſgrace as otherwhiles it is forced to do; and that when we ſpeak to or call upon the awful Majeſty of Almighty God, we might be ſure to ſpeak in the grave and pious language of Chriſt's Church, which hath evermore been guided by the Spirit of God and the Holy Ghoſt; and not to loſe our ſelves with confuſion in any ſudden, abrupt, or rude dictates, which are framed by Private Spirits and Ghoſts of our own. In regard whereof our very Prieſts and Deacons themſelves are for their private and daily Prayers * enjoyned to ſay the Morning and the Evening Devotions of the Church, and when at any time they pray or bid the Prayers before their Sermons, there is a ſet form of words

* Preface before the Com. Book in fine. All Prieſts and Deacons ſhall be bound daily to ſay the Mattins and the Even-ſong, either openly or privately: as it was of old ordained in the Council at Venice under Leo the firſt, can. 14. and in the Council of Mentz. can. 57.

words * prescribed for them to use, that they also might know, it is not so lawful for them to pray of their own heads, or suddenly to say what they please themselves.

* Injunctions, cap. ult. and can. 55. in the Book of Canons and Constitutions Ecclesiastical.

2. The Second is, to let the world understand that they who give it out, and accuse us here in England to have set up a * New Church and a New Faith, to have abandoned all the Ancient Forms of Piety and Devotion, to have taken away all the Religious Exercises and Prayers of our Fore-fathers, to have despised all the old Ceremonies, and cast behind us the Blessed Sacraments of Christ's Catholick Church; that these men do little else but betray their own infirmities, and have more violence and will than reason or judgment for what they say; the common Accusations which, out of the abundance of those partial affections that transport them them the wrong way they are pleaſed to bring ſo frequently againſt us, being but the bare Reports of ſuch people as either do not or will not underſtand us what we are.

3. The Third is, That they who are this way already religiouſly given, and whom earneſt letts and impediments do often hinder from being partakers of the Publick, might have here a Daily and Devout order of Private Prayer, wherein to exerciſe themſelves, and to ſpend ſome hours of the day at leaſt (as the old godly Chriſtians were wont to do) in God's holy worſhip and ſervice; not employing themſelves ſo much to talk and diſpute, as to practiſe Religion, and to live like Chriſtians: the continual and curious diſquiſitions of many unneceſſary Queſtions among us being nothing elſe but either the new ſeeds or the old fruits of malice, and by conſequence the enemy of godlineſs, and the abatement of that true Devotion wherewith God is more delighted, and a good Soul more inflamed and comforted, than with all the buſie ſubtilties of the world: In which ſenſe S. Auſtin was wont to ſay, that * The pious and devout, though unlearned, went to Heaven, whiles other men, truſting to their learning, diſputed it quite away.

* S. Aug. Veniunt indocti & rapiunt cœlum: & nos cum doctrinis noſtris detrudimur ad infernum.

4. The Laſt is, That thoſe who perhaps are but coldly this way yet affected, might by others example be ſtirr'd up to the like heavenly duty of performing their Daily and Chriſtian Devotions to Almighty God, as being a work of all others the moſt acceptable to his Divine Majeſty.

In ſo doing we ſhall all give evident teſtimony to the world whoſe Servants we are, and wherein our chiefeſt delight doth conſiſt; conſiſt; we ſhall enjoy a perpetual Communion with the Saints triumphant as well as militant, and we ſhall have juſt cauſe to conceive, that ſo much of our life is celeſtial and divine as we ſpend in this holy Exerciſe of Prayer and Devotion.

Of the CALENDAR, and the ſpecial uſe thereof in the Church of God.

THE CALENDAR of the Church is as full of benefit as delight unto ſuch as are given to the due ſtudy and contemplation thereof. For beſides the admirable order and diſpoſition of Times, which are neceſſary for the better tranſacting of all Eccleſiaſtical and Secular affairs, it hath in it a very beautiful diſtinction of the Dayes and Seaſons, whereof (a) ſome are choſen out and ſanctified, and others are put among the dayes of the week to number. (a) Eccluſ. 33. 7.

But the chief uſe of it in the Church (ſaith S. (b) Auſtin) is, to preſerve a ſolemn memory and to continue, in their due time, ſometimes a weekly and ſometimes an annual commemoration (b) S. Aug. de Civit. Dei, l. 16, c. 4.

THE

Catholick Faith,

CALLED

The Apoſtles CREED:

Divided into Twelve Articles.

I Believe in God, the Father Almighty, Maker of Heaven and Earth.

2. And in Ieſus Chriſt, his only Son, our Lord.

3. Who was conceived by the Holy Ghoſt, born of the Virgin Mary.

4. He ſuffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried.

5. He deſcended into Hell: the third day he roſe again from the dead.

6. He aſcended into Heaven, and ſitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty.

7. From thence he ſhall come to judge the quick and the dead.

8. I believe in the Holy Ghoſt.
9. The Holy Catholick Church. The Communion of Saints.
10. The Forgiveneſs of Sins.
11. The Reſurrection of the Body.
12. And the Life everlaſting.

Amen.

¶ By this Faith, (into which, and none but which, all Chriſtians are baptized,) we learn to believe,

1. In God the Father, who hath made us and all the world.
2. In God the Son, who hath redeemed us and all mankind.
3. In God the Holy Ghoſt, who doth ſanctifie us and all the choſen people of God.

The

The Petitions.

HAllowed be thy Name.

2. Thy Kingdom come.

3. Thy will be done in Earth, as it is in Heaven.

4. Give us this day our daily bread.

5. And forgive us our treſpaſſes, as we forgive them that treſpaſs againſt us.

6. And lead us not into temptation.

7. But deliver us from evil.

The Doxology.

For thine is the Kingdom, the Power, and the Glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

¶ This Prayer is the foundation whereupon, and the Pattern whereby all our other Prayers *muſt be framed. THE TEN COMMANDMENTS.

THE FIRST TABLE.

I. GOd ſpake theſe words and ſaid, I am the Lord thy God, Thou ſhalt have none other Gods but me. Exod. 20.

II. Thou ſhalt not make to thy ſelf any graven image, nor the likeneſs of any thing that is in Heaven above, or in the Earth beneath, or in the Water under the Earth. Thou ſhalt not bow down to them, nor worſhip them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, and viſit the ſins of the fathers upon the Children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me, and ſhew Mercy unto thouſands in them that love me and keep my Commandments.

III. Thou ſhalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltleſs that taketh his Name in vain.

IV. Remember that thou keep holy the Sabbath day. Six days ſhalt thou labour, and do all that thou haſt to do: but the ſeventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God. In it thou ſhalt do no manner of work, thou, and thy ſon, and thy daughter, thy man-ſervant, and thy maid-ſervant, thy cattel, and the ſtranger that is within thy gates. For in ſix dayes the Lord made Heaven and Earth, the Sea and all that in them is, and reſted the ſeventh day: Wherefore the Lord bleſſed the ſeventh day, and hallowed it.

THE SECOND TABLE.

V. Honour thy father and thy mother, that thy dayes may be long in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

VI. Thou ſhalt do no murther.

VII. Thou ſhalt not commit adultery.

VIII. Thou ſhalt not ſteal.

IX. Thou ſhalt not bear falſe witneſs witneſs againſt thy neighbour.

X. Thou ſhalt not covet thy neighbour's houſe, thou ſhalt not covet thy neighbour's wife, nor his ſervant, nor his maid, nor his oxe, nor his aſs, nor any thing that is his.

THE DUTIES INJOINED, AND THE SINS FORBIDDEN IN The Ten Commandments.

¶ Which may ſerve for a direction to know, or to make known our manifold Offences againſt God and Man.

The DUTIES of the First COMMANDMENT.

1. Thou ſhalt have no other Gods, &c.

TO acknowledge the eternal Deity of the only true God.

2. To worſhip him with all inward devotion of our Souls.

3. To love, honour and obey him for his own ſake.

4. To fear and call upon him, to truſt and believe in him, and none but him, all the dayes of our life, without giving any ſhare of his honour to Angels or Saints, or any other Creature.

Offenders againſt the Firſt Commandment.

THey that by their evil diſpoſition endeavour to perſwade themſelves that there is no God.

2. They of whom God is altogether unapprehended, and who paſs away their time as if there were no God at all, without any deſire or care to know him as a rewarder of the good, and a puniſher of the evil doers.

3. They that imagine, or wickedly fanſy and worſhip, any more gods than one.

4. They that prefer or love any thing whatſoever before the ſervice and will of God.

5. They that by deſpair diſtruſt him, or by boldneſs preſume upon him.

6. They that believe him not, and are

are unſtable or doubtful in the truth of that Faith which he hath revealed.

7. They that tempt him to ſhew his Power without cauſe, and are not content with the ordinary ways and means that he hath ordained for all things.

8. They that uſe inchantments, witchcrafts, ſorceries, ſuperſtitious obſervation of dayes, prediction of fortunes, invocation of ſpirits, and other wicked inventions of the Devil.

The DUTIES of the Second COMMANDMENT.

2. Thou ſhalt not make to thy ſelf, &c.

TO apprehend God as an infinite and incomprehenſible Eſſence, without any form or ſhape of our own fanſying or framing, whereby to make a repreſentation of him.

2. To honour and worſhip him with the lowly reverence even of our Bodies alſo.

3. This to be religiouſly done unto him, and unto none but him; to his Divine Eſſence, and not to the Images that men may vainly frame of him.

4. This also to be done purely, without any such outward and solemn worship to be given either to the person or to the Image of Saint or Angel, or any other creature whatsoever.

Offenders against the Second Commandment.

THey that fansy to themselves any likeness of the Deity, or frame and make any Image, either of God, the Blessed Trinity, or of God the Father, who never appeared to the world in a visible shape.

2. They that make any other Images, or the likeness of any thing whatsoever, (be it of Christ and his Cross, or be it of his blessed Angels,) with an intent to fall down and worship them.

3. They that are worshippers of Idols, or representments of false gods.

4. They that are worshippers of Saints Images, and out of a false opinion of demeriting the protection of the Blessed Virgin, or any other Saint of God, do give a religious Adoration to those usual representments which be made of them.

5. They

5. They also that are no due worshippers of God himself, that fall not lowly down before his presence, religiously to adore him as well with their Bodies as their Souls.

6. They that rudely refuse or carelesly neglect to kneel, bow and prostrate themselves, to uncover their heads, or to stand with seemly aw and reverence before the presence of his Majesty, as at all times of his Service, so chiefly at the times and in the places of his publick Worship.

7. They that regard not the threatnings of his vengeance upon them that transfer his honour to any other, nor the promises of his mercies upon them that duly worship him.

The DUTIES of the Third COMMANDMENT.

3. Thou shalt not take the Name of, &c.

TO honour the most holy and reverend Name of God.

2. To speak of it with religious aw and fear, and that in matters serious and weighty only.

3. To use both it, and all things that are conſecrated unto it, having his Name and ſtamp upon them, with all due regard.

Offenders againſt the Third Commandment.

THey that account no more of the Great Name of God than of another common thing.

2. They that uſe vain and cuſtomary ſwearing.

3. They that in matters ſerious ſwear falſly, and perjure themſelves.

4. They that abuſe the Name of God, or any of his creatures, to curſing and bitter execrations.

5. They that make raſh oaths, and ſudden inconſiderate vows, for things unlikely, unlawful or impoſſible to be performed.

6. They that break their holy, ſolemn and deliberate vows.

7. They that murmure againſt God, or blaſpheme his Name.

8. They that make curious and wanton Queſtions concerning the Nature, the Actions, and the ſecret Decrees of God, not contenting themſelves with that which he hath revealed in his Word.

9. They that contemn his Saints, that prophane his Temples, that ſlight his Sacraments, that regard not his ſervice, that uſe and ſpeak of theſe as of common things, whereas they have God's mark upon them, being ſet apart and dedicated to the ſervice of his moſt Holy and fearful Name.

The DUTIES of the Fourth COMMANDMENT.

4. Remember that thou keep holy, &c.

AS men, to keep holy one day of ſeven.

2. As Chriſtians, to keep that day of the ſeven which, becauſe Chriſt hath inſtituted it, it is called The Lord's-day, and his Church hath ever obſerved.

3. Upon this day to give God a ſolemn and a publick worſhip in the Congregation of his Saints.

4. To reſt from unneceſſary ſervile labours, and the common affairs of the world.

5. To give Alms of what we have, and to ſhew forth our Charity in works of mercy and devotion, as we are able to perform them unto others.

Offenders against the Fourth Commandment.

THey that put no difference between this ſolemn Feſtival and the common dayes of the week.

2. They that ſet themſelves to needleſs, worldly and ſervile affairs upon the Sunday, or ſuffer thoſe over whom they have authority (as being their Husbands, Parents, Maſters, or lawful Governours) to do the like, or any way to neglect the holy duties of the day.

3. They that ſpend it away in idle and vain ſports; that eat and drink, or diſcourſe, or ſleep it away.

4. They that neglect to be duly preſent and aſſiſtent at the publick Service of the Church, whereby God hath this day his ſolemn Homage and Worſhip done him.

5. They that refuſe to give their Alms, and do other the works of mercy and charity, according to their own power, and the neceſſity of other good Chriſtians.

6. They that, under a pretence of ſerving God more ſtrictly than others, (eſpecially for hearing and meditating of Sermons,) do, by their

Faſts

Fasts and certain Judaizing observations, condemn the joyful Festivity of this High and Holy day, which the Church allows, first for the spiritual Exercises of the Soul; and then for the lawful and convenient recreation of the Body in due time.

The DUTIES of the Fifth COMMANDMENT.

5. Honour thy Father and thy Mother, &c.

TO love, honour and obey our Father and Mother with all lowliness and reverence.

2. To succour, help and serve them at their need.

3. In like manner faithfully to serve, honour and humbly obey the King; to reverence his Sacred power and his sovereign Authority over us.

4. To live by his Laws and Commandments, according to God's blessed Word and Ordinance; and not at our own pleasure, to do what we will.

5. To live in an orderly and quiet subjection to the King's subordinate Magistrates; to our Husbands, Masters, Masters, Tutors and Governours, with all fidelity.

6. To submit our selves lowly and reverently to them that are our spiritual Guides and Fathers, the Prelates and Priests of Gods Church.

7. Finally, to carry our selves meekly to all, and humbly to them that be our Betters in any kind or degree whatsoever; not denying them their due love and regard that be our inferiours, or under our authority.

Offenders against the Fifth Commandment.

THey that disobey the lawful commands of their Father or Mother.

PRAYER.

OF THE ANCIENT AND ACCUSTOMED Times of Prayer in general.

them, they cannot possibly attend the Heavenly Exercise of Prayer and Thanksgiving without any intermission at all: it hath therefore been the custom of religious and godly persons in all ages, to appoint themselves certain set Times and Hours of the day, wherein to perform their Devotions. By which means it came to pass that, as other (b) careless people spent the whole day either in their own affairs or pleasures, these men bestowed it, or the chief and more eminent parts of it at least, in the affairs and service of God.

(b) S. Chrysost. hom. 59 ad pop. Antioch.

They that understood Christ's Parable so, as if * men ought alwayes to pray, *and to do nothing else, mistook the matter, and were put into the (c) Catalogue of Hereticks for their labour. when they liſt, have deſerved no leſs blame, and incurred no milder cenſure. Wiſe men have gone an even path, and expounding the Scripture, for continual Prayer; by the continual Practice of the Church, have neither one way nor other offered any violence to Devotion.

The Practice then of old hath been, ſo to keep up Prayer, that men might keep up themſelves withall. From which holy Examples it afterwards came to paſs, that what was by them ſo religiouſly obſerved under the Law, three times a day (at leaſt) to offer up Prayers and Thanksgiving to Almighty God, beſides the (g) Morning and the Evening ſacrifice, was by Chriſtians as pionſly continued and practiſed under the Goſpel alſo; both Jews and Chriſtians being in this duty but equal ſervants to the ſame Trinity, the God both of Law and Goſpel. It is from the Prophet Daniel (ſaith S. Actions

Actions of God and of our Saviour had in a manner made ſacred unto them, they augmented their hours of Prayer, (ſaith (i) that old godly Father) and made their Devotions more frequent and fervent than they were before. (i) S. Cyp. ib.

Such are theſe Hours and Prayers that hereafter follow; which be not now ſet forth for the countenancing of their Novelties that put any truſt in the bare recital only of a few Prayers, or place any virtue in the bead-roll or certain number of them at ſuch and ſuch ſet hours; but for the hearty imitation of that Ancient and Chriſtian Piety, to whom the diſtinction of Hours was but an orderly and uſeful, no ſuperſtitious or wanton performance of their duties.

And ſurely, ſo ſmall a part of our Time taken up from other common actions, if not perhaps from doing ill, or doing nothing, and ſo ſmall a task, though but voluntarily impoſed upon our selves for God's service, will never undo us, nor ever prove to be an abridgment of our Christian liberty, who say, our delight is to be * numbred with the Saints of old, and profess every day, that (a) God's service is perfect freedom.

CERTAIN CHOICE SENTENCES OUT OF HOLY SCRIPTURE,

Whereby the frequency of PRAYER and DEVOTION is highly commended unto us.

PSAL. 34. 15.

THE Eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and his Ears are open unto their Prayers.

S. MATTH. 7. 7.

Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.

S. MARK 13. 35.

Watch and pray, for ye know not at what hour the Lord will come.

S. LUKE 11. 8.

Because of his importunity, he will rise and give him what he needeth.

S. LUKE 18. 1.

It behoveth always to pray, and not to be weary.

S. LUKE 18. 7.

And shall not God hear, and avenge his servants, that pray night and day unto him?

EPHES. 6. 18.

Pray always with all manner of Prayer and Supplication in the Spirit, and watch thereunto with all instance and supplication for all Saints.

1 THES. 5. 17.

Pray without ceasing. And in all things give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus.

1 TIM. 2. 1.

I will therefore that first of all Prayers and Supplications, Intercessions and giving of Thanks be made for all men; for Kings, and for all that are in authority, that we may lead a quiet and a peaceable life in all godliness and honesty? for this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Father, who will have all men to be saved, and to come to the knowledge of his truth.

S. JAMES

S. JAMES 5. 16.

The effectual fervent Prayer of a righteous man availeth much.

REVEL. 5. 8.

The Prayers of the Saints are like the golden vials that are full of ſweet Odours.

S. GREG. NYSEN. hom. de Orat.

PRayer is a work of the ſame dignity and honour, wherein the Angels and Saints of Heaven themſelves are imployed. It is an Advocate for the guilty, a Redemption for the captive, a Reſt for the wearied, and a Comforter for the ſorrowful. It is our Watch-tower whileſt we ſleep, and our ſafe-guard whileſt we are awake.

S. CHRYSOST. de orando Deum.

When I ſee a man that loveth not his Prayers, and is not frequent at his Devotions, I ſhall preſently conclude him to be a miſerable creature, and to have nothing in him at all that is worthy of commendation.

IDEM,

IDEM, ibid.

As the light of the Sun is to the Eye of the Body; so is Prayer to the Soul.

IDEM, ibid.

I cannot but admire and wonder at the great love of God towards man, for vouchsafing him so high an honour, as familiarly to speak unto him by Prayer.

IDEM, Homil. contra Pseudo-Proph.

Hear how the blessed Apostle crieth out unto us to be instant in Prayer, to pray without ceasing; that is, though not every minute of our life without intermission, yet that, as long as we live, and upon all occasions, we never give over Prayer, but still and still continue in it. Pray therefore when thou art at home in thy house, and when thou art abroad in thy journey. Pray when thou liest down, and when thou risest up. But when thou prayest, pray with humility, &c.

PIOUS EJACULATIONS, OR Short PRAYERS, to be committed unto perfect memory, for our first Holy Exercise in the beginning of the Day;

According to the direction of S. AMBROSE in his third Book de Virgin.

At our Apparelling.

According to the direction of S. BASIL, orat. in Martyr. JULIT.

CLothe me, O Lord, with the Ornaments of thy heavenly Grace, and cover me with the Robes of Righteousness.

Rom. 13. Put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof.

At the washing of our hands.

Psal. 51 WAsh me clean, O Lord, from my wickedness, and purge me from my sins.

Cleanse me, O God, by the bright fountain of thy mercy, and water me with the dew of thine abundant grace, grace, that being purified from my ſins, I may grow up in good works, truly ſerving thee in holineſs and righteouſneſs all the days of my life.

And then humbly commending our ſelves to God's protection, upon our knees.

INto the hands of thy bleſſed protection and unſpeakable mercy, O Lord, I commend this day my Soul and my Body, with all the faculties, powers and actions of them both, beſeeching thee to be ever with me, to direct, ſanctifie, and govern me in the ways of thy Laws, and in the works of thy Commandments; that through thy moſt mighty protection, both here and ever I may be preſerved in body and Soul, to ſerve thee the only true God, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

At our going abroad.

SHew me thy wayes, O Lord, and teach me thy paths. Pſal. 25.

Lead me, O God, in the way of thy truth, and guide me for thy mercies ſake. Pſal. 5.

Pſal. 90. TEach me, O Lord, to number my dayes, that I may apply my heart unto wiſdom.

Our time paſſeth away like a ſhadow, and we bring our dayes to an end like a tale that is told.

Have mercy upon me, O Lord, now, and at the hour of death.

At our entrance into the Church.

Pſal. 5. 1 AS for me, I will go into thy houſe, O Lord, in the multitude of thy mercies, and in thy fear will I worſhip thee in thy Holy Temple.

Lord, I have loved the habitation of thine houſe, and the place where thine honour dwelleth.

Pſal. 84. My Soul hath a deſire and longing to enter into the Courts of the Lord.

When we are come into the Quire.

Pſal. 84. OHow amiable are thy dwellings, thou Lord of Hoſts! one day in thy Courts is better than a thouſand.

Bleſſed

Bleſſed are they that dwell in thy Houſe, they will be alwayes praiſing thee.

When we fall down to worſhip and adore before the preſence of God.

HOly, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come: we worſhip him that liveth for ever, and caſt our ſelves before his Throne. Revel. 4.

Thou art worthy, O Lord our God, to receive Glory, and Honour, and Power; for thou haſt created all things, and for thy wills ſake they are, and were created.

A

A DIVINE HYMN, Preparative TO PRAYER.

When to thy God thou speak'st,
O creature mean,
Lift up pure hands,
lay down all foul desires:
Fix thoughts on heaven, present a Conscience clean;
Such holy balm
to Mercie's throne aspires.
Confess faults guilt,
crave pardon for thy sin:
Dread holy paths,
call grace to guide therein.

Ask the Spirit with reverence must obey
Our Maker's will,
to practice what he taught.

Make

Make not the flesh thy Counsel when thou pray,
'Tis enemy to every vertuous thought:
It is the foe
we daily feed and cloath,
It is the prison
that the Soul doth loath.

Even as Elias mounting to the sky,
Did cast his Mantle
to the earth behind:
So when the heart
presents the Prayer on high, Exclude the world from traffick with the mind.
Lips near to God,
and ranging heart within,
Is but vain babling,
and converts to sin.

Like Abraham ascending up the hill
To sacrifice, his servants left below,
That he might act
The Great Commander's will, Without impeach
to his obedient blow;

Even

Even so the Soul remote from earthly things Should mount salvation's shelter, mercie's wings.

Nothing more grateful
in the Highest's Eyes;
Nothing more firm
in danger to protect us;
Nothing more forcible to pierce the skies:
And not depart
till mercy do respect us.
And as the Soul
life to the body gives,
So Prayer revives
the Soul, by Prayer it lives.

AN ADVERTISEMENT CONCERNING The DIVISION OF The HOURS following.

IT appeareth both by the Histories of the Jews, and by plain observations out of the New Testament, that the space of the day from the Morning to the Evening was solemnly divided into four equal parts, which they called Hours, [to wit] the First, the Third, the Sixth, and the Ninth. The First Hour comprehended the whole space from the Sun being risen, about six of the clock in the Morning after our account, till Nine, or thereabouts. The Third Hour began from thence, and lasted till high-Noon with us. The Sixth, from thence to our three of the clock after

after Noon. The Ninth from the Hour to the Veſpers, or Even-ſong, about Six in the Evening, or Sun-ſet. And what was done in any part of theſe four ſpaces was indifferently taken, and ſaid to be done in that Hour, whereunto every ſpace of time was allotted. In which reſpect S. Mark, ch. 15.25. ſaith, It was the Third Hour when they crucified Chriſt: and yet S. John, ch. 19.14. ſaith, It was about the Sixth Hour before he was yet crucified. Nor is there any contradiction at all between theſe two Evangeliſts: S. Mark underſtanding the laſt part of the Third Hour, which was now at the very end; and S. John meaning that it was now near upon the beginning of the Sixth Hour, which was immediately to follow; the ending of the Third, and the beginning of the Sixth being both one and the ſame point of time.

THE ANTIQUITY OF THE MATTINS OR Morning Prayer;

Deduced as well from the Teſtimony of the Sacred Scriptures, as from the holy Fathers of the Church.

(i.) Let him not proſper that ſeeks to feed his Body before he hath refreſhed his Soul, or doth any thing before he hath offered up his Prayers and Praiſes with all Devotion to Almighty God, &c. And many are the Sacred directions and Pious examples of Holy men in all ages before us, whoſe cuſtom it was every day to begin God's ſervice when the day it ſelf began, and to ſet apart the Firſt hour of their Morning for the more chearful performance of their Heavenly Devotions, as by theſe ſubſequent teſtimonies may at large appear.

LAMENT. 2. 19.

Ariſe, and in the beginning of the watches, pour out thine heart like water before the Lord.

ECCLUS. 39. 5.

A wiſe man will give his heart early in the Morning to the Lord that made him, and will pray before the moſt High.

WISD. 16. 28.

That it might be known, we muſt prevent the Sun to give thee thanks, O Lord, and at the day-ſpring to praiſe thee.

S. MARK 1. 35.

And in the Morning, Jeſus riſing up before day, went into a ſolitary place, and there prayed.

S. MARK 13. 35.

Watch ye therefore, for ye know not at what hour the Lord will come, whether in the Morning, &c.

S. MATTH. 20. 1.

The Kingdom of Heaven is like unto a man which went out early in the Morning to hire Labourers in his Vineyard.

S. LUKE 1. 10.

And the whole multitude of the people were praying without at the time of Incenſe, which was in the MORNING.

S. MATTH. 27. 1.

When the Morning was come, all the chief Prieſts and Elders of the people took counſel againſt Jeſus, to put him to death. ¶ Which the Fathers make one reaſon why Chriſtians uſe to pray in the Morning; that as Chriſt's enemies did loſe no time for their wicked deſigns againſt him, ſo Chriſt's ſervants ſhould make like benefit of the ſame time to do him honour and ſervice.

The 4. EVANGELISTS.

It was early in the Morning when Jeſus aroſe from the dead.

Let not the day when it cometh find us ſleeping in our beds, but awaken, and up, and ready at our Prayers, according to his cuſtom, whoſe Eyes prevented the Night-watches, &c. Pſal. 119.

IDEM, Epiſt. 63.

It is the common cuſtom and unanimous conſent of all our Churches, to be up early in the Morning: and when with earneſt and devout tears they have made confeſſion of their ſins unto Almighty God, at length with Hymns and Pſalms to praiſe him for his mercies.

IDEM, In Epiſt. 1. ad NAZIANZ.

What greater bliſs and happineſs can ther:

there be, then thus on earth to imitate the Angels that are in Heaven, every Morning to honour and worship him that made us all?

S. CHRYS. de Or. Deum, l. 1.

It behoveth us therefore to riſe before the Sun be up, and ſo to order our time, that the courſe of our Prayers may equal and anſwer the courſe of the Day. For tell me, with what face can we behold the Sun, unleſs we worſhip him firſt that hath made ſo glorious a light for us?

PRE-

PREPARATORY PRAYERS

To all the HOURS that follow.

God be in my head and understanding.
God be in my eyes and in my seeing.
God be in my mouth and in my speaking.
God be in my heart and in my thinking.
God be at my end and my departing.
Amen.

PRevent me, O Lord, in all my doings with thy most gracious favour, and further me with thy continual help, that in all my works begun, continued and ended in thee, I may glorifie thy holy Name, and finally by thy mercy obtain everlasting life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Confession.

ALmighty and most merciful Father, I have erred and strayed from thy wayes like a lost sheep: I have followed too much the devices and desires of my own heart: I have have offended against thy holy laws. I have left undone those things which I ought to have done; and I have done those things which I ought not to have done; and there is no health in me. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon me miserable offender. Spare thou me, O God, which confesse my faults. Restore thou me that am penitent, according to thy promises declared unto mankind, in Christ Jesus our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake, that I may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, to the glory of thy holy Name, Amen.

The Prayer.

ALmighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who desirest not the death of a sinner, but rather that he may turn from his wickedness, and live, and hast promised to pardon them that truly repent, and unfeignedly believe thy holy Gospel; of thy mercy I beseech thee to grant me true repentance and thy holy Spirit, that those things may please thee which I do at this present, and that the rest of my life hereafter may be pure and holy, so that that at the laſt I may come to thine eternal joy, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord, Amen.

THE MATTINS, OR Morning Prayer, For the Firſt HOUR of the Day.

OUr Father which art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy Will be done, in earth, as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our treſpaſſes, as we forgive them that treſpaſs againſt us. And lead us not into temptation: But deliver us from evil. For thine is the Kingdom, and the Power, and the Glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

[With which, S. Ambroſe ſaith, it was the uſe of the Church in his time to begin their Service.]

Serm. de Deip.

O Come, let us ſing unto the Lord: let us heartily rejoyce in the ſtrength of our ſalvation.

Let us come before his preſence with thankſgiving: and ſhew our ſelves glad in him with Pſalms.

For the Lord is a great God: and a great King above all gods.

In

In his hand are all the corners of the earth: and the ſtrength of the hills is his alſo.

The ſea is his, and he made it: and his hands prepared the dry land.

O come, let us worſhip and fall down: and kneel before the Lord our Maker.

For he is the Lord our God: and we are the people of his paſture, and the ſheep of his hands.

To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts: as in the provocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wilderneſs;

When your fathers tempted me: proved me, and ſaw my works.

Fourty years long was I grieved with this generation and ſaid: It is a people that do err in their hearts, for they have not known my wayes.

Unto whom I ſware in my wrath: that they ſhould not enter into my reſt.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the holy Ghoſt.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever ſhall be: world without end. Amen.

The Hymn.

Jam lucis orto Sidere.

NOw that the Day-ſtar doth ariſe,
Beg we of God with humble cries,
Hurtful things to keep away,
While we duly ſpend the day.
Our Tongues to guide ſo, that no ſtrife
May breed diſquiet in our life:
To ſhut and cloſe the wandring Eye,
Leſt it let in vanity:
To keep the Heart as pure and free
From fond and troubled phantaſie:
To tame proud fleſh, while we deny it
A full cup and wanton diet.
That when the Day-light ſhall go out,
Time bringing on the Night about,
We by leaving worldly wayes
May in ſilence ſing God's praiſe.

Amen.

The Antiphona.

AS long as I live will I magnifie thee on this manner, and lift up my hands in thy Name.

2. Out of the mouth of very babes and ſucklings haſt thou ordained ſtrength, becauſe of thine enemies: that thou mighteſt ſtill the enemy and the avenger.

3. For I will conſider thy heavens, even the works of thy fingers: the Moon and the Stars which thou haſt ordained.

4. What is man, that thou art mindful of him: and the ſon of man, that thou viſiteſt him?

5. Thou madeſt him lower than the Angels: to crown him with glory and worſhip.

6. Thou makeſt him to have dominion of the works of thy hands: and thou haſt put all things in ſubjection under his feet.

7. All ſheep and oxen: yea, and the beaſts of the field.

8. The fouls of the air, and the fiſhes of the ſea: and whatſoever walketh through the paths of the ſeas.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever ſhall be: world without end. Amen.

Pſal. 19.

THe Heavens declare the glory of God: and the firmament ſheweth his handy-work.

2. One day telleth another: and one night certifieth another.

3. There is neither ſpeech nor language: but their voices are heard among them.

4. Their ſound is gone out into all lands: and their words into the ends of the World.

5. In them hath he ſet a tabernacle for the Sun: which cometh forth as a Bridegroom out of his chamber, and rejoyceth as a Giant to run his courſe.

6. It goeth forth from the uttermoſt part of the Heaven, and runneth about unto the end of it again: and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.

7. The Law of the Lord is an undefiled Law, converting the Soul: the Teſtimony of the Lord is ſure, and giveth wiſdom unto the ſimple.

8. The Statutes of the Lord are right, right, and rejoyce the heart: the Commandment of the Lord is pure, and giveth light unto the eyes.

9. The Fear of the Lord is clean, and endureth for ever: the Judgments of the Lord are true, and righteous altogether.

10. More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold: sweeter also than honey, and the honey-comb.

11. Moreover by them is thy servant taught, and in keeping of them there is great reward.

12. Who can tell how oft he offendeth? O cleanse thou me from my secret faults.

13. Keep thy servant also from presumptuous sins, lest they get the dominion over me: so shall I be undefiled, and innocent from the great offence.

14. Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart: be alway acceptable in thy sight,

15. O Lord: my Strength, and my Redeemer.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and and ever ſhall be: world without end. Amen.

Pſal. 24.

THe earth is the Lord's, and all that therein is: the compaſs of the World, and they that dwell therein.

2. For he hath founded it upon the ſeas: and prepared it upon the flouds.

3. Who ſhall aſcend into the hill of the Lord: or who ſhall riſe up in his holy place?

4. Even he that hath clean hands, and a pure heart: and that hath not lift up his mind unto vanity, nor ſworn to deceive his neighbour.

5. He ſhall receive the bleſſing from the Lord: and righteouſneſs from the God of his ſalvation.

6. This is the generation of them that ſeek him: even of them that ſeek thy face, O Jacob.

7. Lift up your heads, O ye gates, and be ye lift up, ye everlaſting doors: and the King of glory ſhall come in.

8. Who is the King of glory? it is the Lord ſtrong and mighty, even the Lord mighty in battel.

9. Lift

9. Lift up your heads, O ye gates, and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors: and the King of glory shall come in.

10. Who is the King of glory? even the Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory.

The Benediction.

BLessed are those that be undefiled in the way, and walk in the Law of the Lord.

The Lesson out of the Proverbs of Solomon.

THe fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom. If sinners entice thee, do not thou consent unto them. These six things doth the Lord

Lord hate, yea, ſeven are an abomination unto him: A proud Look, and a lying Tongue, and Hands that ſhed innocent bloud, an Heart that deviſeth wicked imaginations, Feet that be ſwift in running to miſchief, a falſe witneſs that ſpeaketh not the truth, and him that ſoweth diſcord among Brethren. In the multitude of words there will be ſin: but he that refraineth his tongue is wiſe. Fear God, and the King, and meddle not with them that are ſeditious.

Te Deum laudamus.

WE praiſe thee, O God: we acknowledge thee to be the Lord.

All the earth doth worſhip thee: the Father everlaſting.

To thee all Angels cry aloud: the heavens and all the powers therein.

To thee Cherubin and Seraphin: continually do cry.

Holy, holy, holy: Lord God of Sabbath.

Heaven and earth are full of the majeſty: of thy glory.

The glorious company of the Apoſtles: praiſe thee.

The goodly fellowſhip of the Prophets: praiſe thee.

The noble army of Martyrs: praiſe thee.

The holy Church throughout all the world: doth acknowledge thee.

The Father : of an infinite Majesty ;

Thine honourable, true : and only Son ;

Also the holy Ghost : the Comforter.

Thou art the King of glory : O Christ.

Thou art the everlasting Son : of the Father.

When thou tookest upon thee to deliver man : thou did'st not abhor the Virgin's womb.

When thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death : thou didst open the Kingdom of Heaven to all believers.

Thou sittest at the right hand of God ; in the glory of the Father.

We believe that thou shalt come : to be our Judge.

We therefore pray thee, help thy servants : whom thou hast redeemed with thy precious blood.

Make them to be numbred with thy Saints : in glory everlasting.

O Lord, save thy people : and bless thine heritage.

Govern them : and lift them up for ever.

Day by day : we magnifie thee ;

And

And we worſhip thy Name: ever world without end.

Vouchſafe, O Lord: to keep us this day without ſin.

O Lord, have mercy upon us: have mercy upon us.

O Lord, let thy mercy lighten upon us: as our truſt is in thee.

O Lord, in thee have I truſted: let me never be confounded.

And hath raiſed up a mighty ſalvation for us: in the houſe of his ſervant David;

As he ſpake by the mouth of his holy Prophets: which have been ſince the world began;

That we ſhould be ſaved from our enemies: and from the hands of all that hate us;

To perform the mercy promiſed to our fore-fathers: and to remember his holy Covenant;

To perform the oath which he ſwear to our fore-father Abraham: that he would give us,

That we being delivered out of the hands of our enemies: might ſerve him without fear,

In holineſs and righteouſneſs before him: all the dayes of our life.

And thou, Child, ſhalt be called the Prophet of the Higheſt: for thou ſhalt go before the face of the Lord, to prepare his wayes;

To give knowledge of ſalvation unto this people: for the remiſſion of their ſins,

Through the tender mercy of our God: whereby the Day-ſpring from on high hath viſited us;

To give light to them that ſit in darkdarkneſs and in the ſhadow of death: and to guide our feet into the way of peace.

The ſecond Collect, for Peace.

O God, who art the Author of peace and lover of concord, in knowledge of whom ſtandeth our eternal life, whoſe ſervice is perfect freedom: Defend us thy humble ſervants in all aſſaults of our enemies, that we ſurely truſting in thy defence, may not fear the power of any adverſaries, through the might of Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

The Third Collect, for Grace.

O Lord our heavenly Father, Almighty and everlaſting God, who haſt ſafely brought us to the beginning of this day: Defend us in the ſame same with thy mighty power, and grant that this day we fall into no sin, neither run into any kind of danger, but that all our doings may be ordered by thy governance, to do alwayes that is righteous in thy sight, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Devout Prayer, which may be used at all Times.

I.

GRant me, gracious Lord, a pure intention of my heart, and a stedfast regard to thy Glory in all my actions. Possess my mind continually with thy presence, and ravish it with thy love, that my only delight may be, to be embraced in the arms of thy Protection.

II.

BE Thou a Light unto mine eyes, musick to mine ears, sweetness to my taste, and a full contentment to my heart. Be thou my Sun-shine in the day, my Food at the table, my Repose in the night, my Clothing in nakedness, and my Succour in all necessities.

III.

III.

LOrd Jesu, I give thee my body, my Soul, my substance, my fame, my friends, my liberty, and my life: dispose of me, and of all that is mine, as it seemeth best to thee, and to the glory of thy blessed Name.

IV.

I Am not now mine, but thine. Therefore claim me as thy right, keep me as thy charge, and love me as thy child. Fight for me when I am assaulted, heal me when I am wounded, and revive me when I am destroyed.

V.

MY Lord and my God, I beseech thee to give me patience in troubles, humility in comforts, constancy in temptations and victory against all my ghostly enemies. Grant me sorrow for my sins, thankfulness for thy benefits, fear of thy Judgments, love of thy Mercies, and mindfulness of thy presence for evermore.

VI.

MAke me humble to my Superiours, and friendly to my Equals: make me ready to pleasure all, all, and loth to offend any: make me loving to my friends, and charitable to mine enemies.

VII.

GIve me modesty in my countenance, gravity in my behaviour, deliberation in my speech, holiness in my thoughts, and righteousness in all my actions. Let thy mercy cleanse me from my sins, and let thy Grace bring forth in me the fruits of everlasting life.

VIII.

LOrd, let me be obedient without arguing, humble without feigning, patient without grudging, pure without corruption, merry without lightness, sad without mistrust, sober without dulness, true without doubleness, fearing thee without desperation, and trusting in thee without presumption.

IX.

LEt me be joyful for nothing but that which pleaseth thee; nor sorrowful for any thing but that which doth displease thee. Let my Labour be my delight, which is for thee: and let all Rest weary me, which is not in thee.

X.

X.

GIve me a waking ſpirit, and a diligent Soul, that I may ſeek to know thy will, and when I know it truly, may perform it faithfully, to the honour and glory of thy ever-bleſſed Name. Amen.

The Final Prayers.

ASſiſt us mercifully, O Lord, in theſe our ſupplications and prayers, and diſpoſe the way of thy ſervants toward the attainment of everlaſting Salvation; that among all the changes and chances of this mortal life, they may ever be defended by thy moſt gracious and ready help, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

ALmighty Lord, and everlaſting God, vouchſafe, we beſeech thee, to direct, ſanctifie, and govern both our hearts and bodies in the wayes of thy Laws and in the works of thy Commandments, that through thy moſt mighty protection, both here and ever, we may be preſerved in body and Soul, through our Lord and Saviour Jeſus Chriſt. Amen.

The Doxology.

1 Tim. 1. 17. NOw unto the King Eternal, the immortal, invisible, and only wise God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

THE ANCIENT USE OF PRAYERS AT The Third Hour.

THE Third Hour of the day is commonly called by the Italians, * The Golden Hour; and in the Decrees of the Church, Distin. 44. can. fin. it is termed, The Holy Hour. A Time in a manner made sacred to Christians even by the holy Ghost himself, saith Rupertus: as

ACTS 2.

They were all with one accord in one place; and suddenly there came a sound from Heaven, and they were all filled with the holy Ghost. ¶ Where at the fifteenth verse by those words of S. Peter [it is but the Third hour of the the day] it appeareth that this descent of the holy Ghost was at the Third hour of Prayer, at which time and godly exercise the Apostles were then assembled.

S. MARK 15.

Pilate said unto them, What will you that I do to the King of the Jews? They cried again, Crucifie him, crucifie him, &c. And it was the Third Hour, Vers. 5.

DAN. 6.

And he kneeled three times a day before the Lord. The first of which times (saith S. Cyprian and S. Hieron.) hath been alwayes understood to be the Third Hour of Prayer.

CONST. CLEM. lib. 8. cap. 34.

LEt your Prayers be made at the Third Hour also; for then it was when Pilate gave sentence upon our Lord and Saviour to have him crucified. S. Mark 15.

TERTUL. de Jejun. cap. 10.

The Third, the Sixth and the Ninth Hours,

Hours, as they are the more eminent parts of the day, to distribute and distinguish the publick affairs of men; so have they been accounted the most solemn times of Prayer and divine duties in the Church of God. For at the Third Hour were the holy Apostles met together at their devotions, and filled with the power of the holy Ghost.

S. CYPRIAN, de orat. Dom.

In the Exercise of Devotion and Prayer, we read that the Three Children and the Prophet Daniel, men strong in Faith, and victorious in Captivity, observed the Third Hour of the day: a Mystery no doubt of the Holy and Blessed Trinity, which was afterwards to be made manifest; and a Type of the Holy Ghost's descent at that very Hour.

S. BASIL. In Reg. fus. Disp. Int. 37.

At the Third Hour of the day, let us give our selves to holy Supplications and Prayers, having in continual remembrance the most glorious gift of the Holy Ghost, which was then bestowed upon the Apostles of Christ, as they were devoutly met together at their Prayers and holy Exercises. And let us beseech Almighty God, that we also may be made fit to receive the like blessed Sanctification of the Spirit, to be our Director and Instructor in all things that we do.

S. HIERON. ad Eustoch.

Who knoweth not that the Third Hour is one of those times which are allotted to Prayer?

IDEM, de obitu Paulæ.

At the Third, Sixth and Ninth Hour she said her Psalter, and orderly performed her Devotions.

PRAYERS FOR The Third Hour.

OUr Father which art in Heaven. Hallowed be thy Name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy Will be be done, in earth, as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our treſpaſſes, as we forgive them that treſpaſs againſt us. And lead us not into temptation: But deliver us from evil. For thine is the Kingdom, and the Power, and the Glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Verſ. O God make ſpeed to ſave me.
Reſp. O Lord, make haſte to help me.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the holy Ghoſt.
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever ſhall be: world without end. Amen.

Allelujah, praiſe the Lord.
The Lord's Name be praiſed.

The Hymn.

Veni Creator.

COme, Holy Ghoſt; our Souls inſpire,
And lighten with celeſtial fire.
Thou the anointing Spirit art,
Who doſt thy ſeven-fold gifts impart.
Thy bleſſed Unction from above
Is comfort, life, and fire of love.

Enable with perpetual light
The dulneſs of our blinded ſight.
Anoint and chear our ſoiled face
With the abundance of thy Grace.
Keep far our foes; give peace at home:
Where thou art guide, no ill can come.
Teach us to know the Father, Son,
And Thee of Both to be but One.
That through the Ages all along
This may be our endleſs Song.
Praiſe to thy eternal merit,
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Amen.

The Antiphona.

SHew thy ſervant the light of thy countenance, and ſave me for thy mercies ſake.

Pſal. 15.

LOrd, who ſhall dwell in thy Tabernacle? or who ſhall reſt upon thy holy hill?

2. Even he that leadeth an uncorrupt life: and doth the thing which is right, and ſpeaketh the truth from his heart.

3. He that hath uſed no deceit in his tongue, nor done evil to his neighbour: and hath not ſlandered his neighbour.

4. He

4. He that ſetteth not by himſelf, but is lowly in his own eyes: and maketh much of them that fear the Lord.

5. He that ſweareth unto his neighbour, and diſappointeth him not: though it were to his own hinderance.

6 He that hath not given his money upon uſury: nor taken reward againſt the innocent.

7. Whoſo doth theſe things: ſhall never fall.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the holy Ghoſt.
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever ſhall be: world without end. Amen.

Pſal. 25.

UNto thee, O Lord, will I lift up my Soul, my God, I have put my truſt in thee: O let me not be confounded, neither let mine enemies triumph over me.

2. For all they that hope in thee ſhall not be aſhamed: but ſuch as tranſgreſs without a cauſe ſhall be put to confuſion.

3. Shew me thy wayes, O

Lord: and teach me thy paths,

4. Lead me forth in thy truth, and learn me: for thou art the God of my ſalvation, in thee hath been my hope all the day long.

5. Call to remembrance, O Lord, thy tender mercies: and thy loving kindneſſes which have been ever of old.

6. Oh remember not the ſins and offences of my youth: but according to thy mercy think thou upon me (O Lord) for thy goodneſs.

7. Gracious and righteous is the Lord: therefore will he teach ſinners in the way.

8. Them that are meek ſhall he guide in judgment: and ſuch as are gentle, them ſhall he learn his way.

9. All the paths of the Lord are mercy and truth: unto ſuch as keep his Covenant and his Teſtimonies.

10. For thy Names ſake, O Lord, be merciful unto my ſin, for it is great.

11. What man is he that feareth the Lord? him ſhall he teach in the way that he ſhall chuſe.

12. His Soul ſhall dwell at eaſe: and his ſeed ſhall inherit the land.

13. The ſecret of the Lord is among among them that fear him: and he will ſhew them his Covenant.

14. Mine eyes are ever looking unto the Lord: for he ſhall pluck my feet out of the net.

15. Turn thee unto me, and have mercy upon me: for I am deſolate and in miſery,

16. The ſorrows of my heart are enlarged: O bring thou me out of my troubles.

17. Look upon my adverſity and miſery: and forgive me all my ſin.

18. Conſider mine enemies how many they are: and they bear a tyrannous hate againſt me.

19. O keep my Soul, and deliver me: let me not be confounded, for I have put my truſt in thee.

20. Let perfectneſs and righteous dealing wait upon me: for my hope hath been in thee.

21. Deliver Iſrael, O God: out of all his troubles.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the holy Ghoſt.
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever ſhall be: world without end. Amen.

Pſal. 145.

I Will magnifie thee, O God, my King: and I will praiſe thy Name for ever and ever.

2. Every day will I give thanks unto thee: and praiſe thy Name for ever and ever.

3. Great is the Lord, and marvellous, worthy to be praiſed: there is no end of his greatneſs.

4. One generation ſhall praiſe thy works unto another: and declare thy power.

5. As for me, I will be talking of thy worſhip: thy glory, thy praiſe, and wondrous works;

6. So that men ſhall ſpeak of the might of thy marvellous acts: and I will alſo tell of thy greatneſs.

7. The memorial of thine abundant kindneſs ſhall be ſhewed: and men ſhall ſing of thy righteouſneſs.

8. The Lord is gracious and merciful: long ſuffering, and of great goodneſs.

9. The Lord is loving unto every man: and his mercy is over all his works.

10. All thy works praiſe thee, O Lord: and thy Saints give thanks unto thee.

11. They

11. They ſhew the glory of thy Kingdom: and talk of thy power;

12. That thy power, thy glory, and mightineſs of thy Kingdom: might be known unto men.

13. Thy Kingdom is an everlaſting Kingdom: and thy dominion endureth throughout all Ages.

14. The Lord upholdeth all ſuch as fall: and lifteth up all thoſe that are down.

15. The eyes of all wait upon thee, O Lord: and thou giveſt them their meat in due ſeaſon.

16. Thou openeſt thine hand: and fillеſt all things living with plenteouſneſs.

17. The Lord is righteous in all his wayes: and holy in all his works.

18. The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon him: yea, all ſuch as call upon him faithfully.

19. He will fulfill the deſire of them that fear him: he alſo will hear their cry, and will help them.

20. The Lord preſerveth all them that love him: but ſcattereth abroad all the ungodly.

21. My mouth ſhall ſpeak the praiſe of the Lord: and let all fleſh give thanks unto his holy Name for ever and ever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the holy Ghoſt.
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever ſhall be: world without end. Amen.

The Benediction.

BLeſſed be the Lord God of Iſrael from everlaſting, and world without end.

The LESSON.

EPHES. 6.

TAke unto you the whole Armour of God, that ye may be able to reſiſt the evil day, and ſtand perfect in all things. Stand therefore, and your loins gird with the truth, having on the Breaſt-plate of righteouſneſs; and having ſhoes on your feet, that ye may be prepared for the Goſpel of peace. Above all, take to you the Shield of Faith, wherewith ye may quench all the fiery darts of the wicked one. Take the Helmet of Salvation, and the Sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God. And pray alwayes with all manner of prayer and ſupplication plication in the ſpirit: and watch thereunto with inſtance.

Verſ. O Lord, hear my prayer.
Reſp. And let my cry come unto thee.

The Prayers.

I.

ALmighty God, which as about this Hour didſt inſtruct and repleniſh the hearts of thy faithful Servants, by ſending down upon them the Light of thy holy Spirit: Grant me by the ſame Spirit to have a right judgment in all things, that I may both perceive and know what I ought to do, and alſo have grace and power faithfully to fulfill the ſame, through the merits of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, who was alſo at this Hour contented to receive the bitter ſentence of death for us, and now liveth and reigneth with Thee in the unity of the ſame bleſſed Spirit, one God world without end.

Amen.

II.

ALmighty God, the fountain of all goodneſs, and the wellſpring of divine Graces, who haſt vouchſafed ſafed to regenerate me, being born in ſin, by water and the Holy Ghoſt in the bleſſed Laver of Baptiſm, thereby receiving me into the number of thine elect Children, and making me an Heir of everlaſting life, in the Communion of thy glorious Saints: Strengthen me, I beſeech thee, O Lord, with that bleſſed Spirit of thine, the Ghoſtly Comforter; and daily increaſe in me thy manifold Gifts of Grace, the Spirit of Wiſdom and Underſtanding, the Spirit of Counſel and Ghoſtly Strength, the Spirit of Knowledge and true Godlineſs, and fulfil me, O Lord, with the Spirit of thy Holy Fear, even through him who hath ſent down the Spirit upon his Church, Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

The Lord's Name be praiſed, from the riſing up of the Sun, unto the going down thereof.

4. Who ſaveth thy life from deſtruction, and crowneth thee with mercy and loving kindneſs;

5. Who ſatisfieth thy mouth with good things: making thee young and luſty as an Eagle.

6. The Lord executeth righteouſneſs and judgment: for all them that are oppreſſed with wrong.

7. He ſhewed his wayes unto Moſes: his works unto the children of Iſrael.

8. The Lord is full of compaſſion and mercy: long-ſuffering and of great goodneſs.

9. He will not alway be chiding: neither keepeth he his anger for ever.

10. He hath not dealt with us after our ſins: nor rewarded us according to our wickedneſſes.

11. For look how high the heaven is in compariſon of the earth: ſo great great is his mercy alſo toward them that fear him.

12. Look how wide alſo the Eaſt is from the Weſt: ſo far hath he ſet our ſins from us.

Our Lord and Saviour was exalted upon his Cross at the Sixth Hour of the day, and there being tormented three long hours together, at the Ninth Hour he made perfect our Redemption, and yielded yielded up his own life, to ſave ours. So myſterious were theſe Times of Prayer, which holy men of old had choſen for the exerciſe of their Piety.

S. BASIL. In Reg. Int. 37.

The Apoſtles themſelves have taught us how fit and needful our Prayers are at the Ninth Hour of the day; an Hour which Peter and John obſerved, wherein to go up to the very Temple and pray: it being a ſacred memorial alſo of that Time when our Lord Jeſus was put to death, that he might keep us from death.

S. HIER. in Dan. 6.

11. Come ye children, and hearken unto me: I will teach you the fear of the Lord.

12. What man is he that luſteth to live, and would fain ſee good days?

13. Keep thy tongue from evil: & thy lips that they ſpeak no guile.

14. Eſchew evil, and do good: ſeek peace, and enſue it.

15. The eyes of the Lord are over the righteous: and his ears are open unto their prayers.

16. The countenance of the Lord is againſt them that do evil: to root out the remembrance of them from the earth.

17. The righteous cry, and the Lord heareth them: and delivereth them out of all their troubles.

18. The Lord is nigh unto them that are of a contrite heart: and will ſave ſuch as be of an humble ſpirit.

19. Great are the troubles of the righteous: but the Lord delivereth him out of all.

20. He

THE LESSON.

EPHES. 5. ROM. 12.

BE ye followers of God as dear children: and walk in love, even as Chriſt loved us, and gave himſelf for us an offering, and a ſacrifice of a ſweet ſavour unto God. Offer up your bodies as a living ſacrifice, holy and acceptable unto God, which is your reaſonable ſervice of God. And faſhion not your ſelves like unto this World.

Verſ. The Lord is loving unto every man.

Reſp. And his mercy is over all his works.

The Prayers.

I.

HEar me, O Lord, and remember now that hour in which thou didſt once commend thy bleſſed Spirit into the hands of thy heavenly venly Father, when with a torn Body and a broken Heart thou didſt ſhew forth the bowels of thy mercy, and die for us. I beſeech thee, O Thou Brightneſs and Image of God, ſo to aſſiſt me by this thy moſt precious death, that being dead unto the World, I may live only unto thee; and at the laſt hour of my departing from this mortal life, I may commend my Soul into thy hands, and thou mayeſt receive me into life immortal, there to reign with Thee for ever and ever. Amen.

II.

ALmighty God, who of thy tender love towards man haſt ſent our Saviour Chriſt to ſuffer death upon the Croſs for us, that all mankind ſhould follow the example of his great humility: mercifully grant that we, who have this his moſt precious Death and Paſſion in continual remembrance, may both follow the example of his patience, and be made partakers of his glory, through the ſame Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

The Hymn.

Salvator mundi, Domine.

BLessed Saviour, Lord of all,
Vouchsafe to hear us when we call:
And now to those propitious be
That in Prayer bow to Thee,
Still to be kept from misery.

Great Ruler of the Day and Night,
On our darkness cast thy Light:
And let thy Passion pardon win
For what we have offended in Thought, or word, or deed of sin.

And as thy Mercy wipes away
What we have done amiss to day;

So

So now the night returns again,
Our Bodies and our Souls refrain
From being soil'd with sinful stain.

Let not dull sleep oppress our eyes,
Nor us the enemy surprise; (fright,
Nor fearful dreams our mind affright,
While the blackness of the Night
Holds from us the cheerful Light.

To Thee, who dost by Rest renew
Our wasted strength, we humbly sue,
That when we shall unclose our eyes,
Pure and chast we may arise,
And make our Morning Sacrifice.

Honour, Lord, to thee be done,
O Thou blessed Virgin's Son,
With the Father, and the Spirit,
As is thine eternal merit,
Ever and ever to inherit.

Amen.

The Antiphona.

HE hath made the out-goings of the Morning and Evening to praise Him.

Psal. 111.

I Will give thanks unto the Lord with my whole heart: secretly among the faithful, and in the Congregation.

2. The works of the Lord are great: sought out of all them that have pleasure therein.

3. His work is worthy to be praised and had in honour: and his righteousness endureth for ever.

4. The merciful and gracious Lord hath so done his marvellous works: that they ought to be had in remembrance.

5. He hath given meat unto them that fear him: he shall ever be mindful of his Covenant.

6. He hath shewed his people the power of his works: that he may give them the heritage of the Heathen.

7. The works of his hands are Verity and Judgment: all his Commandments are true.

8. They stand fast for ever and ever: and are done in truth and equity.

9. He sent redemption unto his people: He hath commanded his Covenant for ever, holy and reverend is his Name.

10. The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom: a good understanding ſtanding have all they that do thereafter; the praiſe of it endureth for ever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the holy Ghoſt.
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever ſhall be: world without end. Amen.

Pſal. 112.

BLeſſed is the man that feareth the Lord: he hath great delight in his Commandments.

2. His ſeed ſhall be mighty upon earth: the generation of the faithful ſhall be bleſſed.

3. Riches and plenteouſneſs ſhall be in his houſe: and his righteouſneſs endureth for ever.

4. Unto the godly there ariſeth up light in the darkneſs: he is merciful, loving and righteous.

5. A good man is merciful, and lendeth: and will guide his words with diſcretion.

6. For he ſhall never be moved: and the righteous ſhall be had in everlaſting remembrance.

7 He will not be afraid of any evil tidings: for his heart ſtandeth fast, and believeth in the Lord.

8. His heart is stablished, and will not shrink: until he see his desire upon his enemies.

9. He hath dispersed abroad, and given to the poor: and his righteousness remaineth for ever, his horn shall be exalted with honour.

10. The ungodly shall see it, and it shall grieve him: he shall gnash with his teeth, and consume away; the desire of the ungodly shall perish.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the holy Ghost.
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Psal. 141.

LOrd, I call upon thee, haste thee unto me: and consider my voice when I cry unto thee.

2. Let my prayer be set forth in thy sight as the incense: and let the lifting up of my hands be an evening sacrifice.

3. Set a watch (O Lord) before my mouth: and keep the door of my lips.

4. O

4. O let not mine heart be enclined to any evil thing: let me not be occupied in ungodly works with the men that work wickedneſs, leſt I eat of ſuch things as pleaſe them.

5. Let the righteous rather ſmite me friendly: and reprove me.

6. But let not their precious balms break my head: yea, I will pray yet againſt their wickedneſs.

7. Let their Judges be overthrown in ſtony places: that they may hear my words, for they are ſweet.

8. Our bones lie ſcattered before the pit: like as when one breaketh and heweth wood upon the earth.

9. But mine eyes look unto thee, O Lord God; in thee is my truſt, O caſt not out my Soul.

10. Keep me from the ſnare that they have laid for me: and from the traps of the wicked doers.

11. Let the ungodly fall into their own nets together: and let me ever eſcape them.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the holy Ghoſt.
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever ſhall be: world without end. Amen.

The Benediction.

BLeſſed are the pure in heart, for they ſhall ſee God.

THE LESSON.

S. MARK. 13.

TAke heed, watch and pray: for ye know not when the time is. For the Son of man is as one taking a far journey, who left his houſe, and gave authority to his ſervants, and to every man his work, and commanded the Porter to watch. Watch ye therefore, for ye know not when the Maſter of the houſe will come, at Even, or at Midnight, or at the Cock-crowing, or in the Morning: leſt if he come ſuddenly, he find you ſleeping. And what I ſay unto you, I ſay unto all, Watch.

For he hath regarded: the lowliness of his hand-maiden.

For behold, from henceforth: all generations shall call me blessed.

For he that is mighty hath magnified me: and holy is his Name.

And his mercy is on them that fear him: throughout all generations.

He hath shewed strength with his arm: he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

He hath put down the mighty from their seat: and hath exalted the humble and meek.

He hath filled the hungry with good things: and the rich he hath sent empty away.

He remembring his mercy hath

our unworthineſs we dare not, and for our blindneſs we cannot ask, vouchſafe to give us for the worthineſs of thy Son Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

III.

O Lord our heavenly Father, Almighty and ever-living God, by whoſe providence both the day and the night are governed: vouchſafe, we beſeech thee, as thou haſt this day preſerved us by thy goodneſs, ſo ſtill this night to ſhadow us under the bleſſed wings of thy moſt mighty protection, and to cover us with thy heavenly mercy, that neither the Princes of darkneſs may have any power over us, nor the works of darkneſs overwhelm us, but that we being armed with thy defence, may be preſerved from all adverſities which may hurt the body, and from all wicked thoughts which may aſſault and defile the Soul; through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

IV.

O Thou that art the Light eternal, and the Sun of Righteouſneſs, evermore ariſing and never going down, giving life, and food, and gladneſs unto all things: mercifully vouchſafe to ſhine upon me, and caſt thy bleſſed beams upon the darkneſs of my underſtanding, and the black miſts of my ſins and errors, for thy only merits, who art alone my Saviour Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

S. CHRYSOST. to. 1. de Orand. Deum.

Tell me, with what confidence canst thou lye down to sleep, and pass away the black darkness of the Night? With what fearful and ugly dreams shall thy Soul (thinkest thou) be troubled, unless thou shalt first arm thy self against such delusions and fears by strong and devout Prayers? The LESSON.

1 S. PETER.

BE ſober and watch, becauſe your adverſary the Devil goeth about like a roaring Lion, ſeeking whom he may devour. And the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night, in the which the Heavens ſhall paſs away with a great noiſe, and the Elements ſhall melt with fervent heat. Seeing then that all theſe things ſhall be diſſolved, what manner of perſons ought we to be in all holy converſation and godlineſs!

For mine eyes have seen: thy salvation,

Which thou hast prepared: before the face of all people;

To be a Light to lighten the Gentiles: and to be the Glory of thy people Israel.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

The Creed.

I Believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of Heaven and Earth. And in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into Hell; the third day he rose again from the dead, he ascended into Heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; The Holy Catholick Church; The Communion of Saints; the Forgiveness giveneſs of Sins; the Reſurrection of the Body; and the Life everlaſting. Amen.

Lord, have mercy upon us.
Chriſt, have mercy upon us.
Lord, have mercy upon us.

OUr Father which art in Heaven. Hallowed be thy Name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy Will be done in earth, as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our treſpaſſes, as we forgive them that treſpaſs againſt us. And lead us not into temptation: But deliver us from evil. Amen.

THe Day is thine, and the Night is thine. Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive honour, and praiſe, and worſhip for evermore.

The Prayers.

I.

MErciful Lord, who, of thine abundant goodneſs towards us, haſt made the Day to travel in, and ordained the Night wherein to take our reſt: grant us ſuch Reſt of body, body, that we may continually have a waking Soul, to watch for the time when our Lord shall appear to deliver us from this mortal life. Let no vain or wandring fancy trouble us: let our ghostly enemies have no power over us, but let our minds be set wholly upon thy presence, to love, and fear, and rest in Thee alone: that being refreshed with a moderate and sober sleep we may rise up again with chearful strength and gladness, to serve thee in all good works, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

II.

LIghten our darkness, we beseech thee (O Lord) and by thy great mercy defend us from all perils and dangers of this night, for the love of thy only Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

15. For in thee, O Lord, have I put my trust: thou shalt answer for me, O Lord, my God.

16. I have required that they (even mine enemies) should not triumph over me: for when my foot slipt, they rejoyced greatly against me.

17. And I truly am set in the plague: and my heaviness is ever in my sight.

18. For I will confess my wickedness: and be sorry for my sin.

19. But mine enemies live, and are mighty: and they that hate me wrongfully are many in number.

20. They also that reward evil for good are against me: because I follow the thing that good is.

21. Forsake me not, O Lord, my God: be not thou far from me.

22. Haste thee to help me: O Lord God of my salvation.

Glory

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the holy Ghost.
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Psal. 51.

Miserere mei, Deus.

HAve mercy upon me, O God, after thy great goodness: according to the multitude of thy mercies do away my offences.

2. Wash me throughly from my wickedness: and cleanse me from my sin.

3. For I acknowledge my faults: and my sin is ever before me.

4. Against thee only have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight: that thou mightest be justified in thy saying, and clear when thou art judged.

5. Behold, I was shapen in wickedness: and in sin hath my mother conceived me.

6. But lo, thou requirest truth in the inward parts: and shalt make me to understand wisdom secretly.

7. Thou shalt purge me with hyssop, ſop, and I ſhall be clean: thou ſhalt waſh me, and I ſhall be whiter than ſnow.

8. Thou ſhalt make me hear of joy and gladneſs: that the bones wch thou haſt broken may rejoyce.

9. Turn thy face from my ſins: and put out all my miſdeeds.

10. Make me a clean heart (O God:) and renew a right ſpirit within me.

11. Caſt me not away from thy preſence: and take not thy holy Spirit from me.

12. O give me the comfort of thy help again: and ſtabliſh me with thy free Spirit.

13. Then ſhall I teach thy wayes unto the wicked: and ſinners ſhall be converted unto thee.

14. Deliver me from blood-guiltineſs, O God, thou that art the God of my health: and my tongue ſhall ſing of thy righteouſneſs.

15. Thou ſhalt open my lips (O Lord:) and my mouth ſhall ſhew thy praiſe.

16. For thou deſireſt no ſacrifice, elſe would I give it thee: but thou delighteſt not in burnt-offerings.

17. The ſacrifice of God is a troubled troubled spirit: a broken and contrite heart (O God) shalt thou not despise.

18. O be favourable and gracious unto Sion: build thou the walls of Jerusalem.

19. Then shalt thou be pleased with the sacrifice of righteousness, with the burnt-offerings and oblations: then shall they offer young bullocks upon thine Altar.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the holy Ghost.
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

PSAL. 102.

Domine, exaudi.

HEar my prayer, O Lord: and let my crying come unto thee.

2. Hide not thy face from me in the time of my trouble: incline thine ears unto me when I call, O hear me, and that right soon.

3. For my dayes are consumed away like smoke: and my bones are burnt up as it were a fire-brand.

4. My heart is smitten down, and withered like graſs: ſo that I forget to eat my bread.

5. For the voice of my groaning: my bones will ſcarce cleave to my fleſh.

6. I am become like a Pelican in the Wilderneſs: and like an Owl that is in the Deſart.

7. I have watched, and am even as it were a Sparrow: that ſitteth alone upon the houſe-top.

8. Mine enemies revile me all the day long: and they that are mad upon me are ſworn together againſt me.

9. For I have eaten aſhes as it were bread: and mingled my drink with weeping.

10. And that becauſe of thine indignation and wrath: for thou haſt taken me up, and caſt me down.

11. My dayes are gone like a ſhadow: and I am withered like graſs.

12. But thou (O Lord) ſhalt endure for ever: and thy remembrance throughout all generations.

13. Thou ſhalt ariſe, and have mercy upon Sion: for it is time that thou have mercy upon her, yea, the time is come.

14. And why? thy ſervants think upon upon her ſtones: and it pitieth them to ſee her in the duſt.

15. The heathen ſhall fear thy Name, O Lord: and all the Kings of the earth thy Majeſty;

16. When the Lord ſhall build up Sion: and when his glory ſhall appear;

17. When he turneth him unto the prayer of the poor deſtitute: and deſpiſeth not their deſire.

18. This ſhall be written for thoſe that come after: and the people which ſhall be born ſhall praiſe the Lord.

19. For he hath looked down from his Sanctuary: out of the Heaven did the Lord behold the earth;

20. That he might hear the mournings of ſuch as are in captivity: and delivet the children appointed unto death;

21. That they may declare the Name of the Lord in Sion: and his worſhip at Jeruſalem;

22. When the people are gathered together: and the kingdoms alſo to ſerve the Lord.

23. He brought down my ſtrength in my journey: and ſhortned my dayes.

24. But I said, O my God, take me not away in the midst of mine age: as for thy years, they endure throughout all generations.

25. Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth: and the Heavens are the work of thy hands.

26. They shall perish, but thou shalt endure: they all shall wax old as doth a garment;

27. And as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.

28. The children of thy servants shall continue; and their seed shall stand fast in thy sight.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the holy Ghost.
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

PSAL. 130.

De profundis.

Out of the Deep have I called unto thee (O Lord:) Lord, hear my voice.

2. O

2. O let thine ears conſider well: the voice of my complaint.

3. If thou, Lord, wilt be extreme to mark what is done amiſs? O Lord, who may abide it?

4. For there is mercy with thee: therefore ſhalt thou be feared.

5. I look for the Lord, my Soul doth wait for him: in his Word is my truſt.

6. My Soul fleeth unto the Lord: before the morning watch, I ſay, before the morning watch.

7. O Iſrael, truſt in the Lord, for with the Lord there is mercy: and with him is plenteous redemption.

8. And he ſhall redeem Iſrael: from all his ſins.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the holy Ghoſt.
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever ſhall be: world without end. Amen.

PSAL. 143.

Domine, exaudi.

HEar my prayer, O Lord, and conſider my deſire: hearken unto me for thy truth and righteouſneſs ſake.

2. And enter not into judgment
+ with thy ſervant: for in thy ſight ſhall no man living be juſtified.

3. For the enemy hath perſecuted my Soul, he hath ſmitten my life down to the ground: he hath laid me in the darkneſs, as the men that have been long dead.

4. Therefore is my ſpirit vexed within me: and my heart within me is deſolate.

5. Yet do I remember the time paſt, I muſe upon all thy works: yea, I exerciſe my ſelf in the works of thy hands.

6. I ſtretch forth my hands unto thee: my Soul gaſpeth unto thee as a thirſty land.

7. Hear me, O Lord, and that ſoon, for my ſpirit waxeth faint: hide not thy face from me, leſt I be like unto them that go down into the pit.

8. O let me hear thy loving kindneſs betimes in the morning, for in thee is my truſt: ſhew thou me the way that I ſhould walk in, for I lift up my Soul unto thee.

9. Deliver me, O Lord: from mine enemies, for I flee unto thee to hide me.

10. Teach

10. Teach me to do the thing that pleaseth thee, for thou art my God: let thy loving Spirit lead me forth into the land of righteousness.

11. Quicken me, O Lord, for thy Names sake: and for thy righteousness sake bring my Soul out of trouble.

12. And of thy goodness slay mine enemies: and destroy all them that vex my Soul, for I am thy servant.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the holy Ghost.
As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

The Antiphona.

REmember not, Lord, our offences, nor the offences of our fore-fathers, neither take thou vengeance of our sins: spare us, good Lord, spare thy people whom thou hast redeemed with thy most precious blood, and be not angry with us for ever.

THE LITANY.

O God the Father of Heaven: have mercy upon us, miſerable ſinners.

O God the Father of Heaven: have mercy upon us, miſerable ſinners.

O God the Son, Redeemer of the World: have mercy upon us, miſerable ſinners.

O God the Son, Redeemer of the world: have mercy upon us, miſerable ſinners.

O God the holy Ghoſt, proceeding from the Father and the Son: have mercy upon us, miſerable ſinners.

O God the holy Ghoſt, proceeding from the Father and the Son: have mercy upon us, miſerable ſinners.

O holy, bleſſed and glorious Trinity, three Perſons and one God: have mercy upon us, miſerable ſinners.

O holy, bleſſed and glorious Trinity, three Perſons and one God: have mercy upon us, miſerable ſinners.

Remember

Remember not, Lord, our offences, nor the offences of our forefathers, neither take thou vengeance of our ſins: ſpare us, good Lord, ſpare thy people whom thou haſt redeemed with thy moſt precious blood, and be not angry with us for ever.

Spare us, good Lord.

From all evil and miſchief, from ſin, from the crafts and aſſaults of the Devil, from thy wrath, and from everlaſting damnation,

Good Lord, deliver us.

From all blindneſs of heart; from pride, vain-glory and hypocriſie; from envy, hatred and malice, and all uncharitableneſs,

Good Lord, deliver us.

From fornication, and all other deadly ſin; and from all the deceits of the world, the fleſh, and the devil,

Good Lord, deliver us.

From lightning and tempeſt; from plague, peſtilence and famine; from battel and murther, and from ſudden death.

Good Lord, deliver us.

From all ſedition, privy conſpiracy and rebellion; from all falſe doctrine, hereſie and ſchiſm; from hard-hardneſs of heart and contempt of thy Word and Commandment,

Good Lord, deliver us.

By the myſtery of thy holy Incarnation, by thy holy Nativity and Circumciſion, by thy Baptiſm, Faſting and Temptation,

Good Lord, deliver us.

By thine Agony and bloody Sweat, by thy Croſs and Paſſion, by thy precious Death and Burial, by thy glorious Reſurrection and Aſcenſion, and by the coming of the holy Ghoſt,

Good Lord, deliver us.

In all time of our tribulation, in all time of our wealth, in the hour of death, and in the day of Judgment,

Good Lord, deliver us.

We ſinners do beſeech thee to hear us (O Lord God) and that it may pleaſe thee to rule and govern the holy Church univerſal in the right way;

We beſeech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may pleaſe thee to keep and ſtrengthen in the true worſhipping of thee, in righteouſneſs and holineſs of life, thy Servant CHARLES,

CHARLES, our moſt gracious King and Governour;

We beſeech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may pleaſe thee to rule his heart in thy faith, fear and love, and that he may evermore have affiance in thee, and ever ſeek thy honour and glory;

We beſeech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may pleaſe thee to be his defender and keeper, giving him the victory over all his enemies;

We beſeech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may pleaſe thee to bleſs and preſerve our Gracious Queen CATHERINE, JAMES Duke of York, and all the Royal Family;

We beſeech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may pleaſe thee to illuminate all Biſhops, Prieſts and Deacons with true knowledge and underſtanding of thy Word, and that both by their preaching and living they may ſet it forth, and ſhew it accordingly;

We beſeech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That

That it may please thee to endue the Lords of the Council, and all the Nobility, with grace, wisdom and understanding;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to bless and keep the Magistrates, giving them grace to execute justice, and to maintain truth;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to bless and keep all thy people;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to give to all Nations unity, peace and concord;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to give us an heart to love and dread thee, and diligently to live after thy Commandments;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to give to all thy people increase of grace, to hear meekly thy Word, and to receive it with pure affection, and to bring bring forth the fruits of the Spirit;

We beſeech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may pleaſe thee to bring into the way of truth all ſuch as have erred and are deceived;
We beſeech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may pleaſe thee to ſtrengthen ſuch as do ſtand, and to comfort and help the weak-hearted, and to raiſe up them that fall, and finally to beat down Satan under our feet;
We beſeech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may pleaſe thee to ſuccour, help and comfort all that be in danger, neceſſity and tribulation;
We beſeech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may pleaſe thee to preſerve all that travel by land or by water, all women labouring of child, all ſick perſons and young children, and to ſhew thy pity upon all priſoners and captives;
We beſeech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may pleaſe thee to defend and provide for the fatherleſs children dren and widows, and all that are desolate and oppressed;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to have mercy upon all men;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to forgive our enemies, persecuters and slanderers, and to turn their hearts;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to give and preserve to our use the kindly fruits of the earth, so as in due time we may enjoy them;

We beseech thee to hear us; good Lord.

That it may please thee to give us true repentance, to forgive us all our sins, negligences and ignorances, and to endue us with the grace of thy holy Spirit, to amend our lives according to thy holy Word;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

Son of God: we beseech thee to hear us.

Son of God: we beseech thee to hear us.

O Lamb of God: that takeſt away the ſins of the World,
Grant us thy peace.
O Lamb of God: that takeſt away the ſins of the World,
Have mercy upon us.
O Chriſt, hear us.
O Chriſt, hear us.
Lord, have mercy upon us.
Lord, have mercy upon us.
Chriſt, have mercy upon us.
Chriſt, have mercy upon us.
Lord, have mercy upon us.
Lord, have mercy upon us.

OUr Father which art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our treſpaſſes, as we forgive them that treſpaſs againſt us. And lead us not into temptation: But deliver us from evil. Amen.

Verſ. O Lord, deal not with us after our ſins.
Reſp. Neither reward us after our iniquities.

Let

Let us pray.

O God merciful Father, that despiſeſt not the ſighing of a contrite heart, nor the deſire of ſuch as be ſorrowful; mercifully aſſiſt our prayers that we make before thee in all our troubles and adverſities, whenſoever they oppreſs us, and graciouſly hear us, that thoſe evils which the craft and ſubtilty of the devil or man worketh againſt us be brought to nought, and by the providence of thy goodneſs they may be diſperſed, that we thy ſervanns, being hurt by no perſecutions, may evermore give thanks unto thee in thy holy Church, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord.

O Lord, ariſe, help us, and deliver us for thy Names ſake.

O God, we have heard with our ears, and our fathers have declared unto us the noble works that thou didſt in their dayes, and in the old time before them.

O Lord, ariſe, help us, and deliver us for thine honour.

Glory

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the holy Ghoſt.
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever ſhall be: world without end. Amen.

From our enemies defend us, O Chriſt.
Graciouſly look upon our afflictions.
Pitifully behold the ſorrows of our hearts.
Mercifully forgive the ſins of thy people.
Favourably with mercy hear our prayers.
O Son of David, have mercy upon us.
Both now and ever vouchſafe to hear us, O Chriſt.
Graciouſly hear us, O Chriſt; graciouſly hear us, O Lord Chriſt.

Verſ. O Lord, let thy mercy be ſhewed upon us.
Reſp. As we do put our truſt in thee.

Let us pray.

WE humbly beſeech thee, O Father, mercifully to look upon upon our infirmities; and for the glory of thy Name turn from us all those evils that we most righteously have deserved: and grant that in all our troubles we may put our whole trust and confidence in thy mercy, and evermore serve thee in holiness and pureness of living, to thy honour and glory, through our only Mediator and Advocate, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Prayer of S. Chrysostom.

ALmighty God, who hast given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplications unto thee, and dost promise, that when two or three are gathered together in thy Name, thou wilt grant their requests; fulfil now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of thy servants, as may be most expedient for them, granting us in this world knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting. Amen.

2 COR. 13. 14.

THe Grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the holy Ghost be with us all evermore. Amen.

THE COLLECTS FOR THE Sundays and Holy-days throughout the Year.

Advent Sunday.

THE four Sundayes in Advent are to the great Feaſt of Chriſtmas as the Vigils or Eves are to every Saints day, and Lent to the Feaſt of Eaſter, a ſolemn time of preparation to the bleſſed Birth of our Saviour, which Chriſtians have been uſed to call his Advent, or Coming to us in the fleſh.

It is the peculiar Computation of the Church, to begin her year, and to renew the annual courſe of her Holy and Divine Service at this Advent; herein differing from all other Accounts and Revolutions of Time whatsoever. And it is to let the world know, that she neither numbreth her dayes nor measureth her seasons so much by the motion of the Sun, as by the Course of her Saviour, beginning and continuing on the year with Him, who, being the true Sun of Righteousness, began now to rise upon the World, and, as the Day-star from on high, to enlighten them that sate in spiritual darkness.

The Collect for the first Sunday in Advent.

ALmighty God, give us grace that we may cast away the works of darkness, and put upon us the armour of light, now in the time of this mortal life, (in which thy Son Jesus Christ came to visit us in great humility) that in the last day, when he shall come again in his glorious Majesty to judge both the quick and dead, we may rise to life immortal, through him who liveth and reigneth with thee and the holy Ghost now and ever. Amen.

The Collect for the second Sunday in Advent.

BLessed Lord, who hast caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning; grant that we may in such wise hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that by patience and comfort of thy holy Word we may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which thou hast given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Collect for the third Sunday in Advent.

O Lord Jesu Christ, who at thy first coming didst send thy messenger to prepare thy way before thee; grant that the Ministers and Stewards of thy mysteries may likewise so prepare and make ready thy way, by turning the hearts of the disobedient to the wisdom of the just, that at thy second coming to judge the world we may be found an acceptable people in thy sight, who livest and reignest with the Father and the holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

The Collect for the fourth Sunday in Advent.

O Lord, raise up, we pray thee, thy power, and come among us, and with great might succour us; that whereas through our sins and wickedness we are sore let and hindred in running the race that is set before us, thy bountiful grace and mercy may speedily help and deliver us, through the satisfaction of thy Son our Lord, to whom with thee and the holy Ghost be honour

and

and glory, world without end.
Amen.

The Collect for Christmas-day.

ALmighty God, who haſt given us thy only-begotten Son to take our nature upon him, and as at this time to be born of a pure Virgin; grant that we being regenerate, and made thy children by adoption and grace, may daily be renewed by thy holy Spirit, through the ſame our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the ſame Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

The Collect for S. Stephen's day.

GRant, O Lord, that in all our ſufferings here upon earth for the teſtimony of thy truth, we may ſtedfaſtly look up to heaven, and by faith behold the glory that ſhall be revealed; and being filled with the holy Ghoſt, may learn to love and bleſs our perſecutors, by the example of thy firſt Martyr Saint Stephen, who prayed for his murtherers to thee, O bleſſed Jeſus, who ſtandeſt at the right hand of God to ſuccour all thoſe that ſuffer for thee, our only Mediator and Advocate. Amen.

The Collect for S. John the Evangelist's day.

MErciful Lord, we beseech thee to cast thy bright beams of light upon thy Church, that it being enlightned by the doctrine of thy blessed Apostle and Evangelist Saint John, may so walk in the light of thy truth, that it may at length attain to the light of everlasting life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for Innocents day.

OAlmighty God, who out of the mouths of babes and sucklings hast ordained strength, and madest Infants to glorifie thee by their deaths; mortifie and kill all vices in us, and so strengthen us by thy grace, that by the innocency of our lives, and constancy of our faith even unto death, we may glorifie thy holy Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for the Sunday after Christmas day.

ALmighty God, who hast given us thy only-begotten Son, to take our nature upon him, and as at this

this time to be born of a pure Virgin; grant that we being regenerate, and made thy children by adoption and grace, may daily be renewed by thy holy Spirit, through the ſame our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the ſame Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

The Collect for the Circumciſion of Chriſt.

ALmighty God, who madeſt thy bleſſed Son to be circumciſed and obedient to the Law for man; grant us the true circumciſion of the Spirit, that our hearts and all our members being mortified from all worldly and carnal luſts, we may in all things obey thy bleſſed will, through the ſame thy Son Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for the Epiphany.

O God, who by the leading of a Star didſt manifeſt thy only-begotten Son to the Gentiles; mercifully grant, that we which know thee now by faith, may after this life have the fruition of thy glorious Godhead, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

The Collects for the first Sunday after the Epiphany.

O Lord, we beſeech thee mercifully to receive the prayers of thy people which call upon thee, and grant that they may both perceive and know what things they ought to do, and alſo may have grace and power faithfully to fulfil the ſame, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for the ſecond Sunday after the Epiphany.

ALmighty and everlaſting God, who doſt govern all things in heaven and earth, mercifully hear the ſupplications of thy people, and grant us thy peace all the dayes of our life, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for the third Sunday after the Epiphany.

ALmighty and everlaſting God, mercifully look upon our infirmities, and in all our dangers and neceſſities ſtretch forth thy right hand to help and defend us, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

The

The Collect for the fourth Sunday after the Epiphany.

O God, who knowest us to be ſet in the midſt of ſo many and great dangers, that by reaſon of the frailty of our nature we cannot alwayes ſtand upright; grant to us ſuch ſtrength and protection as may ſupport us in all dangers, and carry us through all temptations, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for the fifth Sunday after the Epiphany.

O Lord, we beſeech thee to keep thy Church and houſhold continually in thy true Religion, that they who do lean only upon the hope of thy heavenly grace may evermore be defended by thy mighty power, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for the ſixth Sunday after the Epiphany.

O God, whoſe bleſſed Son was manifeſted that he might deſtroy the works of the Devil, and make us the Sons of God and heirs of of eternal life; grant us, we beseech thee, that having this hope, we may purifie our selves even as he is pure; that when he shall appear again with power and great glory, we may be made like unto him in his eternal and glorious kingdom, where with thee, O Father, and thee, O Holy Ghost, he liveth and reigneth ever one God world without end.

Amen.

Septu-

Septuageſima Sunday.

SEptuageſima (ſo called from the number of Seventy,) is a ſolemn beginning of a new Office, and a new Time, wherein our Holy Mother the Church hath taught us, by calling to mind the Time of the Jews Captivity from their Country, the better to remember and bewail our own Captivity from ours, even that heavenly Paradiſe which God at firſt created for us. For which purpoſe the Leſſons of the Church-Service (ſaith * S. Bernard) are this day altered in their courſe, & the Story of Geneſis (where both our firſt happineſs and our firſt miſeries are deſcribed) is alwayes begun to be read in Septuageſima.

* Serm. 1. in Septuag.

It is a Time therefore that ſuddenly calls us back from our Chriſtmas feaſting and joy, to our Lenten faſting and ſorrow; from thinking thinking how Chriſt came into the World, to think upon our own ſins and miſeries which brought him into the World; to think upon them, and to bewail or reform them withall, conſidering that he came not to take away their ſins who are not weary of them, or be loth to part with them, and amend their lives themſelves.

To this end there was a godly Ordinance in the ancient Church, (made by the old Council of * Auxerre, more than a thouſand years ſince) that in the end of the Epiphany, there ſhould be certain dayes appointed (ſuch as this and the * two Sundayes following are) wherein to prepare the people for their ſolemn faſting and penance, and to give them warning of their Lent before-hand, that when it came it might be the more ſtrictly and religiouſly obſerved.

* Can. 2.

* Sexag. and Quinqu. Sundayes.

And afterwards, through the variety of Faſting in divers places, it came to paſs that theſe three Sundayes

Sundayes were made to be Three ſeveral Beginnings of the Lent-Faſt, ſome extending their ſolemn humiliation and ſorrow to a larger time than ordinary, and others excepting from it thoſe dayes of the week whereupon many Chriſtians had either no cuſtom or no leave to Faſt: all agreeing in this, that whether we begin at Septuageſima, or any the Sundayes following, the Lent-Faſt is duly to be kept at One ſolemn time of the year, and religiouſly to be continued on to the Great Feaſt of Eaſter.

THE

The Collect for Septuageſima Sunday.

O Lord, we beſeech thee favourably to hear the prayers of thy people, that we, who are juſtly puniſhed for our offences, may be mercifully delivered by thy goodneſs, for the glory of thy Name, through Ieſus Chriſt our Saviour, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the holy Ghoſt, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

The Collect for Sexageſima Sunday.

O Lord God, who ſeeſt that we put not our truſt in any thing that we do; mercifully grant that by thy power we may be defended againſt all adverſity, through Ieſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

The

The Collect for Quinquageſima Sunday.

O Lord, who haſt taught us that all our doings without Charity are nothing worth; ſend thy holy Ghoſt, and pour into our hearts that moſt excellent gift of Charity, the very bond of peace and of all vertues, without which whoſoever liveth is counted dead before thee. Grant this for thine only Son Ieſus Chriſt's ſake. Amen.

The

The first day of Lent.

BY the ancient Laws and custom of the Church of Christ, we still observe a yearly solemn time of Fasting and Prayer, which, from the * season wherein it falls, we call our Lent-fast; a time wherein the Church commemorateth the miraculous Fasting of our Saviour, and by it commendeth the like ghostly and religious exercise unto us, as being the readiest means we can use against the temptations of the Devil, and the sinful desire of our pampered flesh. Not as if she thought we were able to fast as Christ did, and live altogether without meat and drink; or as if her meaning were to tie us unto any such scrupulous Abstinence, which refuseth some kinds of meats, as being being unclean in themſelves: but that, as far as our imperfections and infirmities would ſuffer us, we ſhould tie our ſelves to ſuch a religious Faſt and Abſtinence, as thereby either interrupting, or otherwiſe abating, not only the kind, but the quantity of our diet, and ſo taking the leſs care of our bodily ſuſtenance, we might the more earneſtly hunger and thirſt after righteouſneſs, which is the food of our Souls, and by mortifying of our ſinful fleſh, fix our minds upon heavenlier and better deſires. A Lent ſo kept will conform us the better to our Saviour's Sufferings, which are now remembred; and make us the more capable and more ſenſible of the Joy which the Church expreſſeth in the joyful Solemnity of Eaſter, as well in Commemoration of his, as in Hope of our glorious and gladſom Reſurrection.

And after this manner hath it been religiouſly obſerved throughout all ages, both in the Greek and in the Latin Church.

For the Greeks first. It is mentioned by Ignatius, who was S. John's disciple, in his Epistle to the Philippians, a writing unquestioned. By Irenæus, who was S. John's scholar also but once removed. By Origen, who lived not long after them, in his tenth Homily upon Leviticus. By the famous general Council of * Nice; not much above 300. years after Christ, where they mention the Fourty dayes of Lent as a known thing, instituted and observed by all men long before their time. After them, by S. Cyril in his Catechism; and by S. Chrysostom in his Sermons upon Genesis, which were preached in this Time of Lent. By S. Basil in his second Homily of Fasting, where he tells us that there was no age nor no place, but both knew it and observed it. By Athanasius in his Relation ad Orthodox. By S. Gr. Nyssen sen in his Sermon of Baptism; and by Nazianzen, surnamed the Divine, in his Sermon of Almsdeeds.

* Can. 5.

Then for the Latins. By Tertullian first, who was the first of the Latin Fathers, and spake more concerning the Lent-Fast than perhaps the Church would have had him. By S. Cyprian after him, who was also his scholar. By S. Ambrose, S. Hierom and S. Augustine in more than fourty several places of their writings. After them by a whole cloud of Witnesses, even to our own Times. All which being put together will prove abundantly that the Lent which we now keep is, and ever hath been, an Apostolical Constitution; as S. Hierom said in his Epistle to Marcella, Nos unam Quadragesimam, secundum traditionem Apostolorum, tempore nobis congruo jejunamus: (that is) We observe a Lent-Fast of Fourty dayes, as we have been taught taught to do by the Apoſtles, in a fit and ſeaſonable time of the year.] We add out of S. Auguſtin in his 119. Epiſtle to Januarius, a known place. Quadrageſima Jejuniorum habet autoritatem, &c. [The Lenten Faſt (ſaith he) is authorized both by the Old and New Teſtament; there by Moſes, and here by Chriſt. And out of Chryſologus in his 11. Sermon, Quod Quadrageſimam jejunamus, non eſt humana inventio, &c. [It is no Humane Invention (as they call it) but it comes from Divine Authority, that we faſt our Fourty dayes in Lent.]

The Collect for Aſh-wedneſday.

ALmighty and everlaſting God, who hateſt nothing that thou haſt made, and doſt forgive the ſins of all them that are penitent; create and make in us new and contrite hearts, that we worthily lamenting our ſins and acknowledging our wretchedneſs, may obtain of thee, the God of all mercy, perfect remiſſion and forgiveneſs, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

Three other Collects for this time of Lent.

O Lord, we beſeech thee mercifully hear our prayers, and ſpare all thoſe who confeſs their ſins unto thee, that they whoſe conſciences by ſin are accuſed, by thy merciful pardon may be abſolved, through Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

O Moſt mighty God and merciful Father, who haſt compaſſion upon all men, and hateſt nothing that thou haſt made, who wouldeſt not the death of a ſinner, but that he he ſhould rather turn from his ſin. and be ſaved; mercifully forgive us our treſpaſſes, receive and comfort us, who are grieved and wearied with the burthen of our ſins. Thy property is alwayes to have mercy, to thee only it appertaineth to forgi ſins. Spare us therefore, good Lord, ſpare thy people whom thou haſt redeemed: enter not into judgment with thy ſervants, who are vile earth, and miſerable ſinners; but ſo turn thine anger from us, who meekly acknowledge our vileneſs, and truly repent us of our faults, and ſo make haſte to help us in this world, that we may ever live with thee in the world to come, through Ieſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

TUrn thou us, O good Lord, and ſo ſhall we be turned: be favourable, O Lord, be favourable to thy people, who turn to thee in weeping, faſting and praying: for thou art a merciful God, full of compaſſion, long ſuffering, and of great pity. Thou ſpareſt when we deſerve puniſhment, and in thy wrath thinkeſt upon mercy. Spare thy people, good Lord, ſpare them, and let not thine thine heritage be brought to confuſion. Hear us, O Lord, for thy mercy is great, and after the multitude of thy mercies look upon us, through the merits and mediation of thy bleſſed Son Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for the firſt Sunday in Lent.

O Lord, who for our ſake didſt faſt forty dayes and forty nights; give us grace to uſe ſuch abſtinence, that our fleſh being ſubdued to the Spirit, we may ever obey thy godly motions in righteouſneſs and true holineſs, to thy honour and glory, who liveſt and reigneſt with the Father and the holy Ghoſt, one God, world without end. Amen.

The Collect for the ſecond Sunday in Lent.

ALmighty God, who ſeeſt that we have no power of our ſelves to help our ſelves; keep us both outwardly in our bodies, and inwardly in our ſouls, that we may be defended from all adverſities which may happen to the body, and from all evil thoughts which may assault and hurt the Soul, through Iesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for the third Sunday in Lent.

WE beseech thee, Almighty God, look upon the hearty desires of thy humble servants, and stretch forth the right hand of thy Majesty to be our defence against all our enemies, through Iesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for the fourth Sunday in Lent.

GRant we beseech thee, Almighty God, that we, who for our evil deeds do worthily deserve to be punished, by the comfort of thy grace may mercifully be relieved, through our Lord and Saviour Iesus Christ. Amen.

The Collect for the fifth Sunday in Lent.

WE beseech thee, Almighty God, mercifully to look upon thy people; that by thy great goodness they may be governed and preserved evermore both in body and Soul, through Iesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The

The Week before EASTER.

THis Laſt week of Lent Chriſtians have been uſed to call The Holy and Great Week, or The Paſſion Week, and more ſolemnly to obſerve it than any of the reſt before. For in it the Church doth commemorate and repreſent unto us for our greater humility and devotion, firſt the traiterous Conſpiracy of the Jews with Judas to betray Chriſt unto his death, as upon the Wedneſday before Eaſter. Then, the Inſtitution of Chriſt's Bleſſed Supper, and the waſhing of his Diſciples feet, as upon Maundy Thurſday. Next, the very Croſs and Paſſion of our Saviour, his precious Death and Burial for us all, as upon Good Friday. And lastly, his Rest within the Grave, and his Descent also into Hell, as upon Easter-Even. And all these in tempore suo, in their own proper times and seasons, upon the very dayes when they were done, and became the great and high mysteries of our Christian Religion. Which is the reason why these Dayes are here and * elsewhere ranked among the Holy-dayes of our Church, and a special Service appointed for them: as also, why all the Wednesdayes of the year have been heretofore, and why the * Fridayes and Saturdayes of every week besides are now continued and made common dayes of Abstinence and Prayer.

[1] In the Table of Proper Lessons.

* Clem. Const. l. 8.

* S. Aug. ep. 86. ad Cas.

What the ancient Discipline and religious custom of the Church in this Holy week hath been of old, may appear by this passage of Epiphanius, Hæres. 75. On Church Fasting-dayes, and especially the week before Easter, when with us (saith

(ſaith he) Cuſtom admitteth nothing but lying down upon the earth, abſtinence from fleſhly delights and pleaſures, unſavory and dry diet, ſorrow, prayer, watching, faſting, and all the medicines for our Souls which holy affections can miniſter; other men (with whom the Diſcipline of the Church is in no regard) are up betimes in the morning to take in the ſtrongeſt for the belly, and when their veins are well ſwoln and grown big, they make themſelves ſport and laughter at this our Devout Service, wherewith we are perſwaded we pleaſe God.

Surely ſorrow for ſin is the proper and predominant affection of this Time, ſo taught us by the Church. And what can we reſolve on leſs than the Church now teacheth us? If He in whom there was no ſin was at this time above meaſure ſorrowful for our ſins; ſhall not we, whoſe ſins they were, be in some measure touched with sorrow for them, especially at this Time of his sorrow? True it is, that our Saviour's Sufferings, being the price of our Redemption, are the matter of our greatest Joy: but they are so as they are joyned with his Resurrection, without which there had not been any benefit or joy to us by them. His Church therefore even from the beginning judged this Order to be most convenient and decent, That about the time of His Passion we should have a sympathy, a compassion and a fellow-feeling with him, being made conformable unto him herein by the exercises of Repentance, which are The Passion of every Christian, whereby he dieth unto sin; and that the solemn Joy of our Redemption should be put off till Easter-day, the day of his Resurrection, which is the Hope, and Life, and Glory of us all.

And hence must ever be remembred, that the intent of the Church

in

in the celebration of these her holy Solemnities is, not only to inform us in the mysteries which are commemorated, but also, and that chiefly, to conform us thereby unto Him who is our Head, and the Substance of all our Solemnities whatsoever: that if we be not thus affected with them, we can neither approve our selves to be his followers and servants, nor any lively members of his Church.

The Collect for the Sunday next before Easter.

ALmighty and everlasting God, who of thy tender love towards mankind hast sent thy Son, our Saviour Iesus Christ, to take upon him our flesh, and to suffer death upon the Cross, that all mankind should follow the example of his great humility; mercifully grant that we may both follow the example of his patience, and also be made partakers of his Resurrection, through the same Iesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday before Easter.

ALmighty and everlasting God, who of thy, &c. as before.

The Collects on Good-friday.

ALmighty God, we beseech thee graciously to behold this thy family, for which our Lord Iesus Christ was contented to be betrayed, and given up into the hands of wicked wicked men, and to ſuffer death upon the Croſs; who now liveth and reigneth with thee and the holy Ghoſt, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

ALmighty and everlaſting God, by whoſe Spirit the whole body of the Church is governed and ſanctified; receive our ſupplications and prayers which we offer before thee for all eſtates of men; in thy holy Church, that every member of the ſame in his vocation and miniſtery may truly and godly ſerve thee, through our Lord and Saviour Jeſus Chriſt. Amen.

O Merciful God, who haſt made all men, and hateſt nothing that thou haſt made, nor wouldeſt the death of a ſinner, but rather that he ſhould be converted and live; have mercy upon all Jews, Turks, Infidels and Hereticks, and take from them all ignorance, hardneſs of heart, and contempt of thy Word; and ſo fetch them home (bleſſed Lord) to thy flock, that they may be ſaved among the remnant of the true Iſraelites, and be made one Fold under one Shepherd, Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the holy Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen.

The Collect for Easter-Even.

GRant, O Lord, that as we are baptized into the death of thy blessed Son our Saviour Jesus Christ; so by continual mortifying our corrupt affections, we may be buried with him, and that through the grave and gate of death we may pass to our joyful resurrection, for his merits who died, and was buried, and rose again for us, thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

EASTER-DAY.

IT is a moſt ſolemn Feſtival, as ancient as the glorious Reſurrection of Chriſt's ſelf, by which it was declared and inſtituted to be kept holy, (ſaith * S. Auguſtine) and by virtue of it, All the Sundayes of the year beſides: Being for this cauſe called by the Apoſtles * The Lord's day, and by the Fathers, * God's own Eaſter-day, and both by Them and our own Church, * The Day which the Lord hath made. That what holy Inſtitution ſoever the other ſolemnities of the year have received, ſome from the Apoſtles, and ſome from the Fathers of the Church in ſucceeding Ages; we may be ſure that this ſacred Feſtival *was inſtituted by the divine Authority of God and of Chriſt himſelf. It is ever to be remembred, that this Holy Feast of Joy followeth as Holy a Time of Sorrow, that the Feast of Easter cometh always after the Fast of Lent; and thereby we are to learn, that if we will keep this Feast aright, if we will rise and reign with Christ, we must suffer with him first, crucifie and kill those sins by repentance which be in us, that we may be renewed by the power of that Spirit which is in him, and so being raised up to newness of life here, we may be raised raised up (as this day He was) to the life of glory hereafter.

THE ANTHEMS UPON EASTER-DAY.

CHrist our passover is sacrificed for us: therefore let us keep the Feast. Not with the old leven, neither with the leven of malice and wickedness: but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

CHrist being raised from the dead dieth no more: death hath no more dominion over him. For in that he died, he died unto sin once: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God. Likewise reckon ye also your selves to be dead indeed unto sin: but alive unto God, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Christ

CHriſt is riſen from the dead: and become the firſt-fruits of them that ſlept. For ſince by man came death: by man came alſo the reſurrection of the dead. For as in Adam all die: even ſo in Chriſt ſhall all be made alive.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the holy Ghoſt.
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever ſhall be: world without end. Amen.

The Collect for Eaſter-day.

ALmighty God, who through thine only-begotten Son Jeſus Chriſt haſt overcome death, and opened unto us the gate of everlaſting life; we humbly beſeech thee, that as by thy ſpecial grace preventing us thou doſt put into our minds good deſires, ſo by thy continual help we may bring the ſame to good effect, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the holy Ghoſt, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Monday and Tueſday IN EASTER-WEEK.

THeſe two Holy-dayes have been very anciently annexed to the Feaſt of Eaſter, and were the ſet dayes of a publick and ſolemn baptizing of many multitudes of people together; which the good Chriſtians then rather choſe to adminiſter and to receive at this Time, for that by the Sacrament of Baptiſm the holy Reſurrection of our Saviour is ſo lively ſet forth and commemorated in the Church. This was therefore one reaſon of their firſt inſtitution in old time.

Another was, (and it is the reaſon of their preſent continuance now) for that theſe two days might be a greater honour to the princi-

THE

THE FIRST SUNDAY AFTER EASTER.

IT was the Religious Custom of our Fore-fathers to observe the Octaves of their High and principal Festivals. And this day is the Octave, or the Eighth day, after the Feast of Easter. Upon every Octave (which after seven dayes is a Return to the first day) the use was to repeat some part of that Service and Devotion which was performed upon the principal Feast it self. And this is the reason that the Collect used upon Easter-day is again renewed upon this Sunday.

The Collect for the first Sunday after Easter.

ALmighty Father, who hast given thine only Son to die for our sins, and to rise again for our justification; grant us so to put away the leven of malice and wickedness, that we may alwayes serve thee in pureness of living and truth, through the merits of the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for the second Sunday after Easter.

ALmighty God, who hast given thine only Son to be unto us both a sacrifice for sin, and also an ensample of godly life; give us grace that we may alway most thankfully receive that his inestimable benefit, and also daily endeavour our selves to follow the blessed steps of his most holy life, through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for the third Sunday after Easter.

ALmighty God, who shewest to them that be in error the light of thy truth, to the intent that they may may return into the way of righteouſneſs; grant unto all them that are admitted into the fellowſhip of Chriſt's Religion, that they may eſchew thoſe things that are contrary to their profeſſion, and follow all ſuch things as are agreeable to the ſame, through our Lord Ieſus Chriſt. Amen.

The Collect for the fourth Sunday after Easter.

O Almighty God, who alone canſt order the unruly wills and affections of ſinful men; grant unto thy people, that they may love the thing which thou commandeſt, and deſire that which thou doſt promiſe: that ſo among the ſundry and manifold changes of the world, our hearts may ſurely there be fixed where true joys are to be found, through Ieſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for the fifth Sunday after Easter.

O Lord, from whom all good things do come, grant to us thy humble ſervants, that by thy holy inſpiration we may think thoſe things that be good, and by thy merciful ciful guiding may perform the same, through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Collect for Ascension-day.

GRant, we beseech thee, Almighty God, that like as we do believe thy only-begotten Son our Lord Jesus Christ to have ascended into the Heavens: so we may also in heart and mind thither ascend, and with him continually dwell, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

The Collect for the Sunday after Ascension-day.

O God, the King of glory, who hast exalted thine only Son Jesus Christ with great triumph unto thy Kingdom in heaven; we beseech thee leave us not comfortless, but send to us thine holy Ghost to comfort us, and exalt us unto the same place whither our Saviour Christ is gone before, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

TRINITY SUNDAY.

IMmediately after the deſcent of God's holy Spirit upon the Church, enſued the notice of the glorious and incomprehenſible Trinity, the Father, Son, and Holy Ghoſt, which before that time was not ſo clearly known. This therefore is the order of the Church, (and it is excellent to conſider) that when by the revolution of the year ſhe hath ſolemnly commemorated all thoſe ſacred myſteries which God the Father had of his goodneſs neſs wrought for her, firſt by his Bleſſed Son, and then by his Bleſſed Spirit; now ſhe might end and perfect her Devotions, with a Feſtival of holy Service to the whole Bleſſed Trinity.

The Collect for Trinity Sunday.

ALmighty and everlaſting God, who haſt given unto us thy ſervants grace, by the confeſſion of a true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity, and in the power of the divine Majeſty to worſhip the Unity; we beſeech thee that thou wouldeſt keep us ſtedfaſt in this faith, and evermore defend us from all adverſities, who liveſt and reigneſt one God, world without end. Amen.

The Collect for the firſt Sunday after Trinity.

O God, the ſtrength of all them that put their truſt in thee, mercifully accept our prayers: and becauſe through the weakneſs of our mortal nature we can do no good thing without thee, grant us the help of of thy grace, that in keeping thy commandments we may pleaſe thee both in will and deed, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for the ſecond Sunday after Trinity.

O Lord, who never faileſt to help and govern them whom thou doſt bring up in thy ſtedfaſt fear and love, keep us, we beſeech thee, under the protection of thy good providence, and make us to have a perpetual fear and love of thy holy Name, through Ieſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for the third Sunday after Trinity.

O Lord, we beſeech thee mercifully to hear us; and grant that we, to whom thou haſt given an hearty deſire to pray, may by thy mighty aid be defended and comforted in all dangers and adverſities, through Ieſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for the fourth Sunday after Trinity.

O God, the Protector of all that truſt in thee, without whom nothing is ſtrong, nothing is holy; increaſe and multiply upon us thy mercy, that thou being our Ruler and Guide, we may ſo paſs through things temporal, that we finally loſe not the things eternal. Grant this, O heavenly Father, for Jeſus Chriſt's ſake, our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for the fifth Sunday after Trinity.

GRant, O Lord, we beſeech thee, that the courſe of this world may be ſo peaceably ordered by thy Governance, that thy Church may joyfully ſerve thee in all godly quietneſs, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for the ſixth Sunday after Trinity.

O God, who haſt prepared for them that love thee ſuch good things as paſs mans underſtanding; pour into our hearts ſuch love toward thee, that we loving thee above all things, may obtain thy promiſes, which exceed all that we can deſire, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for the ſeventh Sunday after Trinity.

LOrd of all power and might, who art the author and giver of all good things; graft in our hearts the love of thy Name, increaſe in us true Religion, nouriſh us with all goodneſs, and of thy great mercy keep us in the ſame, through Ieſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for the eighth Sunday after Trinity.

O God, whoſe never-failing providence ordereth all things both in heaven and earth; we humbly beſeech thee to put away from us all hurtful things, and to give us thoſe things which be profitable for us, through Ieſus Chriſt, our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for the ninth Sunday after Trinity.

GRant to us, Lord, we beſeech thee, the Spirit to think and do alwayes ſuch things as be rightful; that we, who cannot do any thing that is good without thee, may by thee be enabled to live according to thy will, through Ieſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for the tenth Sunday after Trinity.

LEt thy merciful ears, O Lord, be open to the prayers of thy humble ſervants; and that they may obtain their petitions, make them to aſk ſuch things as ſhall pleaſe thee, through Ieſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for the eleventh Sunday after Trinity.

O God, who declareſt thy Almighty power moſt chiefly in ſhewing mercy and pity; mercifully grant unto us ſuch a meaſure of thy grace, that we running the way of thy commandments, may obtain thy gracious promiſes, and be made partakers of thy heavenly treaſure, through Ieſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for the twelfth Sunday after Trinity.

ALmighty and everlaſting God, who art alwayes more ready to hear than we to pray, and art wont wont to give more than either we deſire or deſerve; pour down upon us the abundance of thy mercy, forgiving us thoſe things whereof our conſcience is afraid, and giving us thoſe good things which we are not worthy to ask, but through the merits and mediation of Jeſus Chriſt thy Son our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for the thirteenth Sunday after Trinity.

ALmighty and merciful God, of whoſe only gift it cometh that thy faithful people do unto thee true and laudable ſervice; grant, we beſeech thee, that we may ſo faithfully ſerve thee in this life, that we fail nor finally to attain thy heavenly promiſes, through the merits of Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for the fourteenth Sunday after Trinity.

ALmighty and everlaſting God, give unto us the increaſe of Faith, Hope and Charity; and that we may obtain that which thou doſt promiſe, make us to love that which thou doſt command, through Ieſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for the fifteenth Sunday after Trinity.

KEep, we beſeech thee, O Lord, thy Church with thy perpetual mercy: and becauſe the frailty of man without thee cannot but fall, keep us ever by thy help from all things hurtful, and lead us to all things profitable to our ſalvation, through Ieſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for the ſixteenth Sunday after Trinity.

O Lord, we beſeech thee, let thy continual pity cleanſe and defend thy Church: and becauſe it cannot continue in ſafety without thy ſuccour, preſerve it evermore by thy help and goodneſs, through Ieſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for the ſeventeenth Sunday after Trinity.

LOrd, we pray thee, that thy grace may always prevent and follow us; & make us continually to be be given to all good works through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for the eighteenth Sunday after Trinity.

LOrd, we beſeech thee, grant thy people grace to withſtand the temptations of the World, the Fleſh and the Devil, and with pure hearts and minds to follow thee the only God, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for the nineteenth Sunday after Trinity.

O God, foraſmuch as without thee we are not able to pleaſe thee, mercifully grant that thy holy Spirit may in all things direct and rule our hearts, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for the twentieth Sunday after Trinity.

O Almighty and moſt merciful God, of thy bountiful goodneſs keep us, we beſeech thee, from all things that may hurt us: that we being ready both in body and Soul, may chearfully accompliſh thoſe things that thou wouldſt have done, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for the 21. Sunday after Trinity.

GRrant, we beseech thee, merciful Lord, to thy faithful people pardon and peace, that they may be cleansed from all their sins, and serve thee with a quiet mind, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for the 22. Sunday after Trinity.

LOrd, we beseech thee to keep thy household, the Church, in continual godliness, that through thy protection it may be free from all adversities, and devoutly given to serve thee in good works, to the glory of thy Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for the 23. Sunday after Trinity.

OGod, our refuge and strength, who art the author of all godliness, be ready, we beseech thee, to hear the devout prayers of thy Church; and grant that those things which we ask faithfully, we may obtain

The Collect for S. Andrew's day.

ALmighty God, who didſt give ſuch grace unto thy holy Apoſtle S. Andrew, that he readily obeyed the calling of thy Son Ieſus Chriſt, and followed him without delay; grant unto us all, that we being called by thy holy Word, may forthwith give up our ſelves obediently to fulfill thy holy Commandments, through the ſame Ieſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for S. Thomas day.

ALmighty and ever-living God, who for the more confirmation of the Faith didſt ſuffer thy holy Apoſtle Thomas to be doubtful in thy Son's reſurrection, grant us ſo perfectly and without all doubt to believe in thy Son Ieſus Chriſt, that our faith in thy ſight may never be reproved. Hear us, O Lord through the ſame Ieſus Chriſt, to whom with thee and the holy Ghoſt be all honour and glory now and for evermore. Amen.

The Collect on the Converſion of S. Paul.

O God, who through the preaching of the bleſſed Apoſtle S. Paul, haſt cauſed the light of the Goſpel to ſhine throughout the world; grant, we beſeech thee, that we having his wonderful converſion in remembrance, may ſhew forth our thankfulneſs unto thee for the ſame, by following the holy doctrine which he taught, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

The Collect on the Purification of the Bleſſed Virgin Mary.

ALmighty and ever-living God, we humbly beſeech thy Majeſty, that as thy only-begotten Son was this day preſented in the Temple in ſubſtance of our fleſh; ſo we may be preſented unto thee with pure and clean hearts, by the ſame thy Son Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for S. Matthias's day.

O Almighty God, who into the place of the traytor Judas didſt chuſe thy faithful ſervant Matthias, Matthias, to be of the number of the twelve Apoſtles; grant that thy Church, being alway preſerved from falſe Apoſtles, may be ordered and guided by faithful and true Paſtors, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for the Annunciation of the bleſſed Virgin Mary.

WE beſeech thee, O Lord, pour thy grace into our hearts, that as we have known the incarnation of thy Son Jeſus Chriſt by the meſſage of an Angel, ſo by his Croſs and Paſſion we may be brought unto the glory of his Reſurrection, through the ſame Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for S. Mark's day.

O Almighty God, who haſt inſtructed thy holy Church with the heavenly doctrine of thy Evangeliſt S. Mark; give us grace, that being not like children carried away with every blaſt of vain doctrine, we may be eſtabliſhed in the truth of thy holy Goſpel, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for S. Philip and S. James's day.

O Almighty God, whom truly to know is everlasting life; grant us perfectly to know thy Son Jesus Christ to be the Way, the Truth, and the Life: that following the steps of thy holy Apostles S. Philip and S. James, we may stedfastly walk in the way that leadeth to eternal life, through the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for S. Barnabas's day.

O Lord God Almighty, who didst endue thy holy Apostle Barnabas with singular gifts of the holy Ghost; leave us not, we beseech thee, destitute of thy manifold gifts, nor yet of grace to use them alway to thy honour and glory, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for S. John Baptist's day.

Almighty God, by whose providence, thy servant John Baptist was wonderfully born, and sent to prepare the way of thy Son our Saviour, by preaching of Repentance;

tance; make us ſo to follow his doctrine and holy life, that we may truly repent according to his preaching, and after his example conſtantly ſpeak the truth, boldly rebuke vice, and patiently ſuffer for the truths ſake, through Ieſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for S. Peter's day.

O Almighty God, who by thy Son Ieſus Chriſt didſt give to thy Apoſtle S. Peter many excellent gifts, and commandedſt him earneſtly to feed thy flock; make (we beſeech thee) all Biſhops and Paſtors diligently to preach thy holy Word, and the people obediently to follow the ſame, that they may receive the Crown of everlaſting glory, through Ieſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for S. James's day.

GRant, O merciful God, that as thine holy Apoſtle S. James, leaving his Father and all that he had, without delay was obedient unto the calling of thy Son Ieſus Chriſt, and followed him; ſo we forſaking all worldly and carnal affections, may be evermore ready to follow

th thy holy Commandments, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for S. Bartholomew's day.

O Almighty and everlasting God, who didst give to thine Apostle S. Bartholomew grace truly to believe and to preach thy word; grant, we beseech thee, unto thy Church, to love that word which he believed, and both to preach and receive the same, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for S. Matthew's day.

O Almighty God, who by thy blessed Son didst call Matthew from the receipt of Custom to be an Apostle and Evangelist; grant us grace to forsake all covetous desires and inordinate love of riches, and to follow the same thy Son Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

The Collect for S. Michael and all Angels.

O Everlasting God, who hast ordained and constituted the services of Angels and men in a wonderful order; mercifully grant, that as thy holy Angels alway do thee service in heaven, so by thy appointment they may succour and defend us on earth, through Iesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for S. Luke's day.

ALmighty God, who calledst Luke the Physician, whose praise is in the Gospel, to be an Evangelist and Physician of the Soul; may it please thee, that by the wholesome medicines of the doctrine delivered by him all the diseases of our Souls may be healed, through the merits of thy Son Iesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for S. Simon and S. Jude's day.

O Almighty God, who hast built thy Church upon the foundation of the Apostles and Prophets, Iesus Christ himself being the head corner-stone; grant us so to be joyned ned together in unity of ſpirit by their doctrine, that we may be made an holy Temple, acceptable unto thee, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

All-Saints day.

The Reaſons for the ſolemn obſervation of this great and general Feſtival are ſet down in the Preface to the Calendar of this Book.

The Collect for All-Saints day.

O Almighty God, who haſt knit together thine elect in one Communion and fellowſhip in the myſtical body of thy Son Chriſt our Lord; grant us grace ſo to follow thy bleſſed Saints in all vertuous and godly living, that we may come to thoſe unſpeakable joys which thou haſt prepared for them that unfeignedly love thee, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

The Prayer.

I.

ALmighty Lord, who haſt of thine infinite mercy vouchſafed to ordain this dreadful Sacrament for a perpetual memory of that bleſſed Sacrifice which once thou madeſt for us upon the Croſs, grant me with ſuch diligent remembrance and ſuch due reverence to aſſiſt the holy celebration of ſo heavenly and wonderful a Myſtery, that I may be made worthy by thy grace to obtain the virtue and fruits of the ſame, with all the benefits of thy precious Death and Paſſion, even the remiſſion of all my ſins, and the fulneſs of all thy graces which I beg for thy only merits, who art my only only Saviour, God from everlasting, and world without end. Amen.

II.

O Lord our Heavenly Father, Almighty and everlasting God, regard, we beseech thee, the devotion of thy humble servants, who do now celebrate the memorial which thy Son our Saviour hath commanded to be made in remembrance of his most blessed Passion and Sacrifice: that by the merits and power thereof now represented before thy divine Majesty, we and all thy whole Church may obtain remission of our sins, and be made partakers of all other the benefits of his most precious Death and Passion, together with his mighty Resurrection from the earth, and his glorious Ascension into Heaven, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

III.

BE pleased, O God, to accept of this our bounden duty and service, and command that the Prayers and supplications, together with the remembrance of Christ's Passion, which we now offer up unto thee, may be received into thy Heavenly Tabernacle; and that thou, not weighing our own merits, but looking upon the blessed Sacrifice of our Saviour, which was once fully and perfectly made for us all, mayest pardon our offences, and replenish us with thy grace and heavenly benediction, through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

DIVERS FORMS OF Devout and Penitent Confeſſions of our ſins,

To be uſed,
As at other times, ſo eſpecially before the receiving of Chriſt's Bleſſed Sacrament;
According to the direction of the Church.

Exhortation before the Communion.

¶ If any require comfort and counſel for the quieting of his conſcience, let him come to ſome diſcreet Miniſter of God's Word, and opening his grief, receive the benefit of Abſolution.

1 S. JOHN 1. 9.

¶ If we confeſs our ſins, he is faithful and juſt to forgive us our ſins, and to cleanſe us from all unrighteouſneſs.

The Preparation.

ALmighty God, unto whom all hearts be open, all deſires known, and from whom no secrets are hid; cleanse the thoughts of my heart by the inspiration of thy holy Spirit, through Jesus Christ. Amen.

II.

ALmighty and everlasting God, who hatest nothing that thou hast made, and dost forgive the sins of all them that are penitent; create and make in me a new and contrite heart, that I worthily lamenting my sins, and acknowledging my wretchedness, may obtain of thee the God of all mercy, perfect remission and forgiveness, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Confession.

I Confess, &c. those sins which, if I would, I cannot hide from him: my sins of pride and vain-glory, of hatred and envy, of gluttony and wantonness, &c. which I acknowledg through my fault, even through my own fault, and my most grievous fault, to have committed against his heavenly and awful Majesty. I am an unclean and a sinful creature: * I accuse my self of my wicked thoughts and desires that I have had, had, &c. of my wanton and evil words that &c. of my naughty and ungodly deeds that &c. for all which I am truly penitent from the depth of my Soul, and am ſtedfaſtly reſolved to ſhew forth the fruits of repentance in my future courſe of life. And therefore in all lowlineſs and humility of a broken heart I beg my pardon, and cry unto God for mercy towards me a moſt ſinful and unworthy creature: that he whoſe nature and property it is to forgive ſinners, and ever to have mercy upon them that truly turn unto him, would vouchſafe, of his great pity and goodneſs, to give me the comfort of Abſolution, and a perfect remiſſion of all my ſins; to ſtrengthen me in all good works, and to bring me unto life everlaſting, through Jeſus Chriſt. Amen.

* Here may the Penitent have recourse to the several breaches of God's Commandments, specified in the beginning of this Book.

Other Forms of general Confeſſions.

I.

ALmighty and moſt merciful Father, I have erred and ſtrayed

From thy wayes like a lost sheep; I have followed too much the devices and desires of my own heart; I have offended against thy holy Laws; I have left undone those things which I ought to have done, and I have done those things which I ought not to have done; and there is no health in me: But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon me, miserable offender. Spare thou me, O God, which confess my faults; restore thou me that am penitent; according to thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesu our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake, that I may hereafter live a godly, righteous and sober life, to the glory of thy holy Name. Amen.

II.

ALmighty God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, maker of all things, judge of all men; I acknowledge and bewail my manifold sins and wickednesses, which I from time to time most grievously have committed, by thought, word and deed, against thy divine Majesty; provoking most justly thy wrath and indignation against me. I do earnestly repent, and am heartily sorry for these

these my misdoings: the remembrance of them is grievous unto me, the burthen of them is intolerable. Have mercy upon me, have mercy upon me, most merciful Father, for thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ's sake: forgive me all that is past, and grant that I may ever hereafter serve and please thee in newness of life, to the honour and glory of thy Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

III.

FOrgive me my sins, O Lord, forgive me the sins of my youth and the sins of mine age, the sins of my Soul and the sins of my body, my secret and my whispering sins, my presumptuous and my crying sins, the sins that I have done to please my self and the sins that I have done to please others. Forgive me my wanton and idle sins, forgive me my serious and deliberated sins: forgive me those sins which I know, and those sins which I know not: the sins which I have striven so long to hide from others, that now I have even hid them from mine own memory. Forgive them, O Lord, forgive them all, and of thy great goodness let me be absolved from mine offences. A

A devout manner of preparing our ſelves to receive Abſolution.

I That am a wretched ſinner, here perſonally appearing and proſtrate before the preſence of the everlaſting God, having in remembrance the exceeding mercy of his great goodneſs towards me; whom he hath created of nothing, preſerved, ſuſtained and loved when I was moſt unworthy of any thing, whom he hath of his incomprehenſible clemency ſo often invited to repentance, and whoſe converſion and amendment he hath ſo patiently expected; as alſo having in memory, that at the day of my Chriſtning I was ſo happily and holily vowed and dedicated unto my God, to be his child, and to live in his continual ſervice; yet that, contrary to the profeſſion which was then made in my name, I have ſo many and ſundry times, ſo execrably and deteſtably, violated my vows, profaned my ſacred promiſes, and imployed my Soul to the ſervice of the World, the Fleſh and the Devil, thereby deſpiſing ſpiſing the graces and contemning the goodneſs of God's divine Majeſty; at length recalling my ſelf, and in all lowly and devout wiſe here caſting my Soul and body proſtrate before the dreadful Throne of his Juſtice, I acknowledge and confeſs, and I yield my ſelf a moſt miſerable wretched ſinner, guilty of that Death and Paſſion which Chriſt once ſuffered for me upon the tormenting Croſs. But turning my ſelf to the Throne of his infinite Mercy, and with all my might and force from the very bowels of my heart deteſting the iniquities of my fore-paſſed life, I moſt humbly beg and crave pardon for the ſame, with an entire abſolution from all my ſins, even for the precious death and paſſions ſake of my Lord and Saviour, upon whom, as upon the only foundation of my hope, I repoſe all my confidence, and unto whom I promiſe and confirm again, I advow and ſolemnly renew the ſacred profeſſion of loyal ſervice and fidelity which was made in my name and in my behalf unto him at my holy Baptiſm; renouncing unfeignedly the vanities of this wicked World, the luſts of all ſinful Fleſh, and the ſuggeſtions of the Devil, and converting my ſelf unto my moſt gracious and merciful God, I deſire, deliberate, purpoſe and fully reſolve to honour him, ſerve him, love him, and obey him now and for ever hereafter; giving and dedicating unto him, for this end, the powers of my Soul, the affections of my heart, and the faculties of my body, to be his faithful, loyal and obedient ſervants for ever, without unſaying, revoking, or repenting me of this my holy and ſacred promiſe, or any part thereof. And I moſt humbly beſeech Almighty God the Father, Son, and Holy Ghoſt, to confirm me in this conſtant reſolution, and to accept of this my broken and contrite heart, which he hath promiſed not to deſpiſe; entirely deſiring his fatherly goodneſs, that as he hath given me a deſire and will to purpoſe, ſo he would give me ſtrength and grace to perform all holy actions, through Jeſus Chriſt.

Amen.

The

The Prayer.

O God, whose nature and property is ever to have mercy and to forgive, that hast compassion upon all men, and hatest nothing that thou hast made, nor wouldest the death of a sinner, but rather that he should turn from sin, and be saved; mercifully hear the devout and lowly prayers of thy servant, and spare all those who confess their sins unto thee: that they whose consciences by sin are accused, by thy merciful and gracious pardon may be absolved, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

After Absolution.

I Will therefore that Prayers and Supplications with giving of thanks be made for all men: for Kings, and for all that are in authority, that we may live a quiet and a peaceable life in all godlineſs and honeſty. For this is good and acceptable in the ſight of God our Saviour.

Verſ. O Lord, ſave the King.
Reſp. And mercifully hear us when we call upon thee.

The Prayers.

I.

ALmighty God, whoſe Kingdom is everlaſting and power infinite; have mercy upon the whole Church, and ſo rule the heart of thy choſen Servant CHARLES, our King and Governour, that he (knowing whoſe Miniſter he is) may above all things ſeek thy honor and glory; and that we and all his ſubjects (duly conſidering whoſe authority he hath) may faithfully ſerve, honour, and and humbly obey him in thee, and for thee, according to thy bleſſed Word and Ordinance, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord, who, with thee and the holy Ghoſt, liveth and reigneth ever one God, world without end. Amen.

II.

ALmighty and everlaſting God, we are taught by thy holy Word, that the hearts of Kings are in thy rule and governance, and that thou doſt diſpoſe and turn them as it ſeemeth beſt to thy godly wiſdom: we humbly beſeech thee ſo to diſpoſe and govern the heart of CHARLES thy Servant our King and Governour, that in all his thoughts, words, and works, he may ever ſeek thy honour and glory, and ſtudy to preſerve thy people committed to his charge, in wealth, peace and godlineſs. Grant this O merciful Father, for thy dear Son's ſake, Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

III.

WE beſeech thee, O Lord, to ſave and defend all Chriſtian Kings, Princes and Governours, and ſpecially thy Servant CHARLES, our King, that under him we may be godly and quietly governed: and grant unto his whole Council, and to all that are put in authority under him, that they may truly and indifferently minister justice, to the punishment of wickedness and vice, and to the maintenance of thy true Religion and vertue. Amen.

IV.

O Lord our heavenly Father, high and mighty, King of kings; Lord of lords, the only Ruler of Princes, who dost from thy Throne behold all the dwellers upon earth; most heartily we beseech thee with thy favour to behold our most gracious Sovereign Lord King CHARLES, and so replenish him with the grace of thy holy Spirit, that he may alway incline to thy will, and walk in thy way: endue him plenteously with heavenly gifts, grant him in health and wealth long to live, strengthen him that he may vanquish and overcome all his enemies, and finally after this life he may attain everlasting joy and felicity, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

V. Ex libro Regali.

O Almighty and everlasting God, Creator and Lord of all things, give ear we beseech thee, unto our humble prayers, and multiply thy blessings upon thy Servant, our Soverign King CHARLES, whom in all lowly devotion we commend unto thy high Majesty: that He being strengthened with the faith of Abraham, endued with the mildness of Moses, armed with the magnanimity of Joshua, exalted with the humility of David, beautified with the wisdom of Solomon, and repleniſhed with the goodness and holiness of them all, may walk uprightly before thee in the way of righteousness, and, like a mighty King, may be powerful over his enemies, governing his people with equity, and preserving thy Church with Truth and Peace, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

VI.

GOD, the unspeakable Author of the World, Creator of Men, Governour of Empires, and Establisher of all Kingdoms, who out of the loins of our Father Abraham didst chuse a King that became the Lib. Reg.

Saviour of all Kings and Nations of the earth; bleſs, we beſeech thee, thy faithful Servant, and our dread Sovereign Lord, King CHARLES, with the richeſt bleſſings of thy Grace. Eſtabliſh him in the Throne of his Kingdom by thy mighty aid and protection: viſit him as thou didſt viſit Moſes in the Buſh, Joſhua in the Battel, Gideon in the field, and Samuel in the Temple. Let the Dew of thine abundant mercies fall upon his head, and give unto him the bleſſing of David and Solomon. Be unto him an Helmet of ſalvation againſt the face of his enemies, and a ſtrong Tower of defence in the time of adverſity. Let his Reign be proſperous, and his days many. Let peace and love and holineſs, let juſtice and truth and all Chriſtian vertues flouriſh in his time: let his people ſerve him with honour and obedience; and let him ſo duly ſerve thee here on earth, that he may hereafter everlaſtingly reign with thee in Heaven, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

VII.

Lib. Reg. LOok down, Almighty God, with thy favourable Countenance upon upon thine Anointed, and our glorious King. Bleſs him as thou didſt bleſs Abraham, Iſaac and Jacob, and pour upon him the fulneſs of thy Mercy and Grace. Give unto him of the Dew of Heaven, and of the fatneſs of the earth, abundance of Corn and Wine, and Oil, and plenty of all things long to continue; that in his time there may be health in our Country, and peace throughout all his Kingdoms; that the glory of his Royal Court may ſhine forth far and near in the eyes of all Nations, even through Him who is the King of Kings, and Lord of all things, our Saviour Ieſus Chriſt. Amen.

VIII.

GRant, we beſeech thee, Almighty God, that our Sovereign Lord the King may be a moſt mighty Protector of his People, a religious Defender of thy ſacred Faith, a bountiful Comforter of thy holy Church, a glorious Triumpher over all his enemies, a gracious Governour unto all his Subjects, and a happy Father of many children, to rule this Nation by ſucceſſion in all ages, through Ieſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen. 1 Ib. Reg.

PRAYERS FOR THE QUEEN.

I.

ALmighty God, the fountain of all mercy, we humbly beſeech thee to pour down the riches of thine abundant goodneſs upon the Head of thine Handmaid, our moſt gracious Queen CATHERINE; that ſhe being continually beautified with the Royal ornaments of thy heavenly Grace, may be holy and devout as Heſter, loving to the King as Rachel, fruitful as Leah, wiſe as Rebecca, faithful and obedient as Sarah; and with long life and glory continuing in her High and Princely eſtate here, ſhe may at laſt be brought to the great happineſs of thine everlaſting eſtate hereafter, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord.

Amen.

II.

ALmighty God, our Heavenly Father, we be taught by thy holy holy Word, that the bringing forth of children, and the fruitfulneſs of the womb is in thy rule and governance, an heritage and bleſſing that cometh from the Lord: we humbly beſeech thee ſo to diſpoſe, comfort and bleſs thine humble Handmaid, our moſt gracious Queen CATHERINE, that ſhe may grow up as a fruitful Vine upon the walls of the King's houſe, and become a joyful Mother of many children, to the joy and welfare of this Kingdom, and to the glory of thy holy Name, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

III.

O God, from whom all good graces do proceed, we beſeech thee to multiply upon thy devoted Handmaid, our gracious Queen, the manifold gifts of thy holy Spirit, the Spirit of Wiſdom and Underſtanding, the Spirit of Counſel and Ghoſtly ſtrength, the Spirit of Knowledge and true Godlineſs, and fulfill her, O Lord, with the Spirit of thy holy fear, for Jeſus Chriſt his ſake. Amen.

IV.

ALmighty God, bless her with the blessings of Heaven above, and the blessings of the earth beneath. Let peace and plenty dwell about her, let Holiness and Honour be her Guard, and let all the fulness of thy blessings be upon her, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A PRAYER FOR The Royal Family.

ALmighty God, the Fountain of all goodness, we humbly beseech thee to bless our gracious Queen CATHERINE, JAMES Duke of York, and all the Royal Family: endue them with thy holy Spirit, enrich them with thy heavenly Grace, prosper them with all happiness, and bring them to thine everlasting Kingdom, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Lord's Name be praised.

THE

THE PRAYERS

Common to all The Ember dayes,

DISPOSED

According to the Seven Reaſons before ſpecified.

I.

For God's acceptance of our Humiliation.

ALmighty God, who didſt command thy people Iſrael to afflict their Souls before thee on the day of atonement, and by whoſe divine inſpiration the ſucceeding Ages of that Church appointed other ſet times of publick Faſting and Humiliation; grant, we beſeech thee, that as our knowledge of thee and of thy Truth far exceeds theirs; ſo in this, and all other duties of Religion, our Righteouſneſs may exceed their Righteouſneſs, that men ſeeing our good works, may glorifie thee thee our heavenly Father, through Jesus Christ thy Son our Saviour. Amen.

II.

For consecrating the beginning of every Season unto God.

ALmighty God, from whom we have the beginning and continuance of our life; grant, we beseech thee, that we thy humble servants may so consecrate unto thy Divine Majesty the first-fruits of this Time and Season of the year, that the good purposes which thou putteſt into our hearts may have full effect in our lives, to thy glory and our Souls health, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

III.

For Grace to spend the whole Season aright.

ALmighty God our heavenly Father, we most humbly beseech thee that we thy servants, who do begin this Time and Season of the year with fasting and sober living, may find thereby such ghostly strength and comfort, that we may be the more able and willing to spend

ſpend both the remainder of this Seaſon, and the reſt of our dayes accordingly, uſing this world as it becometh thoſe who are pilgrims and ſtrangers here, and do look for an abiding City in the Heavens, through the merits of Jeſus Chriſt our Saviour. Amen.

IV.

For the Fruits of the Earth.

ALmighty God, Lord of heaven and earth, in whom we live, move, and have our being, who doeſt good unto all men, making thy Sun to riſe on the evil and on the good, and ſending Rain on the juſt and on the unjuſt; favourably behold us thy people, who do call upon thy Name, and ſend us thy bleſſing from heaven, in giving us fruitful Seaſons, and filling our hearts with food and gladneſs: that both our hearts and mouths may be continually filled with thy praiſes, giving thanks to thee in thy holy Church, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

V. For

V.

For Pardon of ſins paſt.

ALmighty and moſt merciful Father, who, for our many and grievous ſins, thoſe eſpecially which we have committed againſt thee ſince the laſt ſolemn Time of our Humiliation and Repentance, mighteſt moſt juſtly have cut us off in the midſt of our dayes, but in the multitude of thy mercies haſt hitherto ſpared us; accept, we moſt heartily beſeech thee, our unfeigned ſorrow for all our former tranſgreſſions, and grant that we may never ſo preſume of thy mercy, as to deſpiſe the Riches of thy goodneſs, but that thy forbearance and long-ſuffering may lead us to repentance and amendment of our ſinful lives, to thy honour and glory, and our final acquittance and abſolution at the laſt day, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

VI.

For the Health of our Bodies.

O God the Father of Lights, from whom cometh down every good and perfect gift; mercifull loo-

look upon our frailty and infirmity, and grant us such health of Body as thou knowest to be needful for us: that both in our Bodies and Souls we may evermore serve thee with all our strength and might, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

VII.

For the Ordination of Priests and Deacons.

ALmighty God our heavenly Father, who hast purchased to thy self an universal Church by the precious blood of thy dear Son; mercifully look upon the same, and at this time so guide and govern the minds of thy servants, the Bishops and Pastors of thy Flock, that they may lay hands suddenly on no man, but faithfully and wisely make choice of fit persons to serve in the sacred Ministry of thy Church: and to those which shall be ordained to any holy Function give thy Grace and heavenly benediction, that both by their life and doctrine they may set forth thy glory, and set forward the Salvation of all men. Grant this, O Lord, for his sake who is the great great Shepherd and Bishop of our Souls, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE PRAYERS PROPER To the four several Ember weeks.

I.

In the time of Advent.

GRant, we most humbly beseech thee, O heavenly Father, that with holy Simeon and Anna, and all thy devout servants who waited for the consolation of Israel, we may at this time so serve thee with fasting and prayer, that by the celebration of the Advent and Birth of our blessed Redeemer, we may with them be filled with true joy and consolation, through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

II.

For the Ember week in Lent.

O Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of God and Saviour of the World, who didst foretell to thine Apostles, that at the time of thy sufferings they should weep and lament, while the world rejoyced, and that they should be sorrowful, but their sorrow should be turned into joy; grant, that during this time wherein thou didst suffer, and wast afflicted with extreme sorrow and anguish for the sins of the whole world, we thy unworthy servants may so weep and lament, and be sorrowful for our sins, the cause of all those thy sorrows and sufferings, that on the day of thy triumphant Resurrection we may rejoyce with that joy which no man can take from us. Grant this, O blessed Lord and Saviour, who didst die for our sins, and rise again for our justification, and now livest and reignest with the Father, in the Unity of the Holy Ghost, world without end. Amen.

III. For

III.

For the Ember week after Pentecost.

O Lord Jesus Christ, the Eternal Son of the Eternal Father, who at the time of thy glorious Ascension didst command thine Apostles to tarry in Jerusalem until they were endued with Power from on high; and when in obedience to this thy commandment they had there continued with one accord in prayer and supplication, didst according to thy promise send down upon them the Holy Ghost the Comforter: grant, we beseech thee, that we thy most humble servants abiding in the unity of thy holy Catholick Church, the Mother of us all, and continually serving thee as thou hast commanded, may be evermore replenished with the heavenly grace of the Holy Ghost, through thy precious merits and most powerful intercession, who livest and reignest with the Father in the Unity of the same Spirit, ever world without end. Amen.

IV. For

IV.

For the Ember week in September.

ALmighty God, who giveſt to all life and breath and all things, and bringeſt forth food out of the Earth for the uſe of Man; keep us ever in mind, that this world with all the glory of it fadeth, and the faſhion thereof paſſeth away: and grant that we may ſo uſe the fruits of the ground which thou haſt now given us, and all other thy temporal Bleſſings wherewith thou crowneſt the year, as we abuſe them not to the ſatisfying of our wanton and inordinate appetites; but may evermore ſerve thee in Chriſtian temperance and ſobriety, as it becometh thoſe who, living on earth, have their converſation in heaven; that at the laſt we may be admitted into thy heavenly Kingdom, where we ſhall never hunger or thirſt again, being ſatisfied with the plenteouſneſs of thy Houſe, and filled with the abundance of thy pleaſures for evermore. Grant this, O heavenly Father, for Jeſus Chriſt's ſake our Lord. Amen.

ASsiſt me mercifully, O Lord, in theſe my ſupplications and prayers, and diſpoſe the way of thy ſervants towards the attainment of everlaſting ſalvation; that among all the changes and chances of this mortal life, they may ever be defended by thy moſt gracious and ready help, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

THE

THE LITANY.

O God the Father of Heaven: have mercy upon us miſerable ſinners, and upon the Soul of this thy ſervant.

O God the Father, &c.

O God the Son, Redeemer of the World: have mercy upon us miſerable ſinners, and upon the Soul of this thy ſervant.

O God the Son, &c.

O God the holy Ghoſt, proceeding from the Father and the Son: have mercy upon us miſerable ſinners, and upon the Soul of this thy ſervant.

O God the holy Ghoſt, &c.

O Holy, Bleſſed and Glorious Trinity, three Perſons and one God: have mercy upon us miſerable ſinners, and upon the Soul of this thy ſervant.

O holy, bleſſed and glorious Trinity, &c.

Remember not, Lord, our iniquities, nor the iniquities of our forefathers, neither take thou vengeance of our ſins: ſpare us, good Lord, and ſpare this thy ſervant whom thou haſt redeemed with thy moſt precious ous blood, and be not angry with us for ever.

Spare us, good Lord.

From all evil and miſchief, from the crafts and aſſaults of the Devil,

Good Lord, deliver him (or her.)

From thy wrath, and from everlaſting damnation,

Good Lord, deliver, &c.

From the fear of death, from the burthen of his (or her) ſins, and from the power of Hell,

Good Lord, deliver, &c.

By the multitude of thy mercies, and by thy goodneſs which hath been ever of old,

Good Lord, deliver, &c.

By the myſtery of thy holy Incarnation, by thy holy Nativity and Circumciſion, by thy Baptiſm, Faſting and Temptation,

Good Lord, deliver, &c.

By thine Agony and bloody Sweat, by thy Croſs and Paſſion,

Good Lord, deliver, &c.

By thy precious Death and Burial, and by thy glorious Triumph over Death and Hell,

Good Lord, deliver, &c.

By thy moſt wonderful Reſurrection and Aſcenſion, and by the mira-miraculous coming down of the holy Ghoſt,

Good Lord, deliver, &c.

In this time of his (or her) tribulation, in this hour of death, and in the day of Judgment,

Good Lord, deliver, &c.

We ſinners do beſeech thee to hear us, O Lord God, that it may pleaſe thee to deliver the Soul of this thy ſervant from the power of his (or her) enemies;

We beſeech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That he may evermore have a ſure affiance and truſt in thy mercy;

We beſeech, &c.

That it may pleaſe thee to be his Defender and Keeper, giving him the victory over Death, Hell and Sin;

We beſeech, &c.

That it may pleaſe thee to ſuccour, help and comfort him in this his danger, neceſſity and tribulation;

We beſeech, &c.

That it may pleaſe thee of thy goodneſs to forgive him all his offences;

We beſeech, &c.

That it may pleaſe thee to aſſwage his pain, and to give him a quiet quiet and joyful departure;

We beſeech, &c.

That it may pleaſe thee to guard him with thy holy Angels, and to take him unto thy favour, through the merits of Chriſt our Saviour;

We beſeech, &c.

That it may pleaſe thee to ſhew him the path of everlaſting life, and the fulneſs of joy at thy right hand, where there is pleaſure for evermore;

We beſeech, &c.

Son of God: we beſeech thee to hear us,

Son of God, &c.

O Lamb of God: that takeſt away the ſins of the World,

Grant him thy peace.

O Lamb of God, that &c.

Have mercy upon him.

O Chriſt, hear us.

O Chriſt, &c.

Lord, have mercy upon him.

Chriſt, have, &c.

Lord have mercy upon him.

THe peace of God the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghoſt, be with him evermore.

The manner of commending the Soul into the hands of God, at the very point of time when it is departing from the body.

WE brought nothing into this world, neither may we carry any thing out of this world. The Lord giveth, and the Lord taketh away. Even as the Lord pleaſeth, ſo cometh every thing to paſs. Bleſſed be the Name of the Lord.

INto thy merciful hands, O Lord, we commend the Soul of this thy ſervant now departing from the body. acknowledg, we meekly beſeech thee, a work of thine own hands, a Sheep of thine own Fold, a Lamb of thine own Flock, a Sinner of thine own redeeming. Receive him into the bleſſed arms of thy unſpeakable mercy, into the ſacred reſt of everlaſting peace, and into the glorious eſtate of thy choſen Saints in heaven.

God the Father, who hath created thee, God the Son who hath redeemed thee, God the holy Ghoſt who hath infuſed his Grace into thee, be now and evermore thy defence, aſſiſt thee in this thy laſt trial, and bring bring thee into the way of everlasting life. Amen.

Christ that redeemed thee with his Agony and bloody Death, have mercy upon thee, and strengthen thee in this agony of death. Amen.

Christ Jesus that rose the third day from death, raise up thy body again in the resurrection of the just. Amen.

Christ that ascended into Heaven, and now sitteth at the right hand of God, bring thee to the place of eternal happiness and joy. Amen.

God the Father preserve and keep thee; God the Son assist and strengthen thee; God the Holy Spirit defend and aid thee; God the Holy Trinity be ever with thee: that thy death may be precious in the sight of the Lord, with whom thou shalt live for evermore. Amen.

Then let be said plainly, distinctly, and with some pauses, these ejaculatory Meditations and Prayers.

GO to thy rest, O my Soul, for the Lord hath upholden thee.

From death to life, from sorrow to joy, from a vale of misery to a Paradise of mercy.

I know that my Redeemer liveth, and that I ſhall be raiſed again in the laſt day.

I ſhall walk before the Lord in the land of the living.

In thee, O Lord, have I truſted; let me never be confounded.

Make me to be numbred with thy Saints in glory everlaſting.

Into thy hands I commend my ſpirit: for thou haſt redeemed me, O Lord, thou God of Truth.

I am poor and needy: but the Lord careth for me.

I deſire to be diſſolved, and to be with Chriſt.

Thou art my Helper and Redeemer: make no long tarrying, O my God.

Come, Lord Jeſu, Come quickly.

O Lord, let it be thy pleaſure to deliver me: make haſte, O Lord, to help me.

Lord Jeſus, receive my ſpirit.

And theſe (with the Prayers next following) to be repeated until the Soul be departed.

O Thou Lamb of God, that takeſt away the ſins of the World: grant him thy peace.

O Lord, with whom do live the ſpirits of them that die, and by whom the Souls of thy ſervants, after they be delivered from the burthen of this fleſh, be in perpetual joy and felicity; we moſt meekly beſeech thee for this thy ſervant, that having now received the Abſolution from all his ſins which he hath committed in this world, he may eſcape the gates of Hell, and the pains of eternal darkneſs: that he may for ever dwell with Abraham, Iſaac and Jacob in the Region of light and thy bleſſed preſence, where there is neither weeping nor heavineſs; and that when the dreadful day of the general Judgment ſhall come, he may riſe again with the juſt, his Body being re-united to his Soul, pure and incorruptible, and be received into thy glorious Kingdom, for the merits of thy dear Son our Saviour Jeſus Chriſt. Amen.

A PRAYER AND Thankſgiving FOR The whole Eſtate OF Chriſt's Catholick Church.

¶ With a Commemoration of the Saints before us.

ALmighty God, who by thy holy Apoſtle hath taught us to make Prayers and Supplications for all men; we humbly beſeech thee moſt mercifully to receive theſe our praye s, which we offer unto thy divine Majeſty for all men in general, and more eſpecially for thine own people, the holy Catholick Church, the Mother of us all that bear the Name of Chriſt; beſeeching thee to inſpire it continually with the Spirit of truth, unity, and concord: and grant that all they who do confeſs thy holy Name, may agree in the truth of thy holy Word, and live in unity and godly love, being one Fold under one Shepherd, Jesus Christ our Lord. And here forasmuch as we be not only taught to pray, but to give thanks also for all men, we do offer up unto thee most high laud and hearty thanks for all thy wonderful Graces and Vertues which thou hast declared in all thy Saints, and by them bestowed upon thy holy Church from the beginning of the world: and chiefly in the glorious and most * blessed Virgin Mary, the Mother of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord; as also in the blessed Angels of Heaven; and in all other holy persons upon earth, who by their Lives and Labours have shined forth as Lights in the several generations of the World, such as were the holy Patriarchs, Prophets, Apostles and Martyrs, whom we remember with honour, and commemorate with joy; and for whom, as also for all other thy happy Servants our Fathers and Brethren, who have * departed this life with the seal of Faith, and do now rest in the sleep of peace, we praise and magnifie thy gloglorious Name; moſt humbly deſiring that we may ſtill continue in their holy Communion and enjoy the comfort thereof while we are on earth, following with a glad will and mind their holy examples of godly living and ſtedfaſtneſs in thy Faith; and that at the laſt day we with them and they with us may attain to the Reſurrection of the juſt, and have our perfect conſummation both of Soul and body in the Kingdom of Heaven. For theſe, and for all other things that thou, O God, wouldſt have us to pray, and to praiſe thy great Name, we are bold to call upon thee, and ſay as Chriſt our Lord hath taught us,

Our Father, &c.

For our Parents.

ALmighty God, Father of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, of whom the whole family in heaven and in earth is named; I give thee moſt humble thanks, for that thou didſt of thy divine providence vouchſafe to let me be born of Chriſtian Parents, by whoſe care I was firſt brought unto thy holy Baptiſm, and afterwards brought up in thy holy Religion. I beseech thee, O blessed God, who art the Rewarder of every good work, to recompense them their full reward, even out of the riches of thy bounty and goodness. Give them peace and plenty; defend them from all dangers both of body and Soul; keep them in the stedfastness of thy faith, and in the obedience of thy holy commandments: that so having thee their merciful and gentle Father, after many happy dayes here in this life, they may at last be brought unto life everlasting, through Jesus Christ. Amen.

Another for our Parents.

ALmighty God, who hast streightly commanded us to honour our Father and our Mother next unto thee; grant me of thy goodness and grace so to love and to honour my Parents, to fear and to obey them, to help and to pray for them, as thou in thy holy Word hast directed and charged me to do: that both in their life and at their death their Souls may bless me; and by thy Fatherly mercy I may obtain that blessing which thou hast promised ſed to thoſe that honour their father and their mother; and that thou ſeeing my unfeigned heart and reverence towards them, mayeſt become my loving heavenly Father, and number me amongſt thoſe thy children who are heirs of thy glorious Kingdom, through thy well-beloved and dear Son Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

For our Children.

ALmighty God, the Father and Maker of us all, who of thy bleſſing and goodneſs haſt vouchſafed to make me a Father (or Mother) of children: be pleaſed alſo to accept my hearty thankſgiving and devout praiſe for the ſame: and grant me thy heavenly grace and aſſiſtance ſo to train them up in thy godly nurture, vertue, religion and diſcipline, that they may continually ſerve, honour and obey thee their heavenly Father; and that thou acknowledging and bleſſing them as thy children here, mayeſt bring them to the bleſſing prepared for thy children hereafter, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

A Prayer to be used by Women that travail with Child.

ALmighty God, the Father of all mercy and comfort, of whose only gift it is that the womb becometh fruitful; graciously behold me thine humble and unworthy Handmaid, that as by thy good providence I have conceived a Child within my womb, into which thou hast breathed a spirit of life, so by thy continual aid I may be preserved with it from all perils, and at the fulness of my time may safely bring it forth into the world, to the joy and comfort of my own Soul, and to the glory of thy holy Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Another.

MErciful Lord, who, when thou tookest upon thee to deliver Man, didst not abhor the Virgins womb, but, when the fulness of time came, wast thy self made of a woman; I beseech thee for thy tender pity and goodness to protect and strengthen me against all the dangers and pains of my Labour and Travail, that that through thy moſt mighty aid I may be ſafely delivered of this happy fruit which thou haſt created in my womb: and when it is born and brought forth into the world, vouchſafe alſo that it may be born again by Baptiſm; and brought up in thy holy Religion, till it be finally brought to thine everlaſting Kingdom, where, with the Father and the holy Ghoſt, thou liveſt and reigneſt, ever one God, world without end.

Amen.

A Thanksgiving after Child-birth.

GRacious God, by whoſe providence we are all fearfully and wonderfully made, who beholdeſt us when we are yet unperfect, and in whoſe Book are all our members written; I humbly beſeech thee to accept this my reverence of thy power, and to receive this my moſt hearty praiſe and thankſgiving, which I now offer up unto thy divine Majeſty, for thy bleſſed favour and goodneſs towards me, in vouchſafing to aſſiſt me during the [illegible] of this my dangerous Travail, and to bleſs me with a joyful [illegible] even the fruit of mine own womb. Behold, O Lord, what thine own hands alone have faſhioned, and grant that this little Infant, which thou haſt made by thy power, may be preſerved by thy goodneſs, and forthwith enjoying the benefit of thy holy Baptiſm, may be made a lively member of thy Church, and be carefully brought up to ſerve thee in all godlineſs and honeſty, through the merits of thy well-beloved Son Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

A Thanksgiving for Recovery from Sickneſs.

PRaiſe the Lord, O my Soul, and all that is within me praiſe his holy Name: who hath ſaved thy life from deſtruction, and crowned thee with mercy and loving kindneſs. O Lord my God, I cried unto thee, and thou haſt healed me. Therefore will I ſing of thy praiſe without ceaſing, and I will pay my vows, and give thanks unto thee for ever. Amen.

A Prayer in the time of War.

OAlmighty God, King of all kings, and Governour of all things, things, whoſe power no creature is able to reſiſt, to whom it belongeth juſtly to puniſh ſinners, and to be merciful to them that truly repent; ſave and deliver us, we humbly beſeech thee, from the hands of our enemies, abate their pride, aſſwage their malice, and confound their devices: that we, being armed with thy defence, may be preſerved evermore from all perils, to glorifie thee, who art the only giver of all victory, through the merits of thy only Son Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

A Thankſgiving for Peace and Victory.

O Almighty God, who art a ſtrong Tower of defence unto thy ſervants; we give unto thee moſt hearty praiſe and thanks for that thou haſt delivered us from our enemies, and from thoſe many and fearful dangers wherewith we were lately compaſſed; acknowledging thy goodneſs, that we were not conſumed by them, and beſeeching thee for thy mercies to eſtabliſh us in this happy Peace, and to continue on thy loving kindneſs to us (who art our only only Saviour and mighty Deliverer) through Iesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Thanksgiving for restoring publick Peace at home.

O Eternal God our heavenly Father, who alone makest men to be of one mind in a house, and stillest the outrage of a violent and unruly people; We bless thy holy Name that it hath pleased thee to appease the seditious tumults which have been lately raised up amongst us; most humbly beseeching thee to grant to all of us grace, that we may henceforth obediently walk in thy holy commandments, and leading a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty, may continually offer unto thee our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving for these thy mercies towards us, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Prayer in the time of any common Plague.

O Almighty God, who in thy wrath didst send a Plague upon thine own people in the wilderness for their obstinate rebellion against Moses and Aaron, and also in the time time of King David didſt ſlay with the plague of Peſtilence threeſcore and ten thouſand, and yet remembring thy mercy didſt ſave the reſt; have pity upon us miſerable ſinners, who now are viſited with great ſickneſs and mortality: that like as thou didſt then accept of an atonement, and didſt command the deſtroying Angel to ceaſe from puniſhing; ſo it may now pleaſe thee to withdraw from us this Plague and grievous ſickneſs, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

A Thanksgiving for deliverance from any Plague.

O Lord God, who haſt wounded us for our ſins, and conſumed us for our tranſgreſſions, by thy late heavy and dreadful viſitation, and now, in the midſt of judgment remembring mercy, haſt redeemed our Souls from the jaws of death; we offer unto thy fatherly goodneſs our ſelves, our Souls and bodies, which thou haſt delivered, to be a living ſacrifice unto thee, alwayes praiſing and magnifying thy mercies in the midſt of thy Church, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

A Prayer and Thanksgiving for every true Subject to use upon the Anniversary day of the King's Reign.

LOrd, by whom Kings do reign, and Princes are set up to bear rule over their people, and by whose gracious Providence thy Servant and our dread Sovereign King CHARLES was as this day placed in the Royal Throne of his Kingdom; accept, we beseech thee, the grateful Commemoration which we now make before Heaven and before Thee, of this thy great goodness and blessing towards us; that while we offer up our vows and sacrifices of Thanksgiving to the praise of thy glorious Name, thou mayest bless the King with thy favours, and crown Him with continual honour, granting Him a long, prosperous and religious Reign over his people, and granting us a true, quiet, humble and obedient subjection under Him: that He ruling us prudently with all his power, we may obey Him loyally with all lowliness and chearfulness of mind;

and

and that both He and we evermore endeavouring to ſet forth the beauty of thy Church Militant here on earth, may be at laſt exalted to the glory of thy Church Triumphant in the Heavens, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

A Prayer and Thankſgiving upon the Anniverſary day of our Birth.

ALmighty God, the Father and Maker of all things, by whoſe bleſſed goodneſs I was fearfully and wonderfully made in my mothers womb, and unto whoſe bleſſed providence I have been left ever ſince I was born, and hung upon my mothers breaſts; I praiſe and magnifie thy glorious Name for this thy great goodneſs towards me: moſt humbly beſeeching thee, that I may be taught to number my dayes, and to apply my heart unto wiſdom; that I may know to what end I was born, and had both body & life given me, even to ſerve thee the living God; that I may bewail my ſinful years paſt, and ſpend the reſt of my time here in a godly, righteous and ſober life;

life; that as I have now finiſhed ooo. years of my life here in thy favour, ſo I may continue and finiſh up the remainder of my dayes in thy fear; and that as thou didſt upon this day take me out of my mothers womb to live here a little time, ſo thou mayeſt at the laſt day take me out of my mothers womb again, even the grave and the womb of the earth, to live with thee for ever, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord.

Amen.

A Prayer and Thanksgiving upon the Anniverſary day of our Baptiſm.

O Lord, heavenly Father, Almighty and everlaſting God, who of thine infinite goodneſs towards me, when I was born in ſin, and was no other than an heir of everlaſting wrath, didſt vouchſafe that I ſhould as upon this day be born again of water and the Holy Ghoſt in the bleſſed Laver of Baptiſm, being thereby made a member of Chriſt and an heir of eternal life: for this thine ineſtimable favour I do here gratefully commemorate that happy py day, and in moſt humble and hearty wiſe I do extol the abundant riches of thy glorious grace, in thy ſight, and in the ſight of thy holy Angels, with all the company of Heaven, renewing that ſacred vow which was then made in my Name, to forſake this wicked World, and to live as a Chriſtian ought to do, in obedience to thy holy Faith and Commandments: moſt humbly beſeeching thee of thy great mercy to pardon me all former breaches of my ſolemn promiſe, and to endue me ſo with the aſſiſtance of thy holy Spirit, that henceforth I may walk in newneſs of life, worthy of that bleſſed eſtate whereunto thou haſt called me; and keeping my ſelf unſpotted of the World, the Fleſh and the Devil, I may daily die unto ſin, for which cauſe I was baptized into the death of Chriſt; and as I have had my part this day in the firſt regeneration, ſo I may at the laſt day have my part in the ſecond and great regeneration of the world, to live and reign with thee for ever, through the merits of Ieſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

A Prayer wherewith S. Auguſtine began his Devotions, admiring the unſpeakable Majeſty and Attributes of God.

WHat art thou, O my God? What art thou, I beſeech thee, but the Lord my God? For who is Lord beſides our Lord? or who is God beſides our God? O thou ſupreme, moſt powerful, moſt merciful, moſt juſt, moſt ſecret, moſt preſent, moſt beautiful, moſt mighty, moſt incomprehenſible, moſt conſtant, and yet changing all things; immutable, never new and never old, and yet renewing all things; ever in action, and yet ever quiet; heaping up, yet needing nothing; creating, upholding, filling, protecting, nouriſhing and perfecting all things.

Thou loveſt, and yet thou art not tranſported: Thou art jealous, yet thou art void of fear: Thou doſt repent, yet thou art free from ſorrow: Thou art angry, and yet never art unquiet: Thou takeſt what thou findeſt, yet didſt thou never loſe any thing: Thou art never poor, poor, and yet thou art glad of gain; never covetous, and yet thou exacteſt profit at our hands. We beſtow largely upon thee, that thou mayeſt become our debtor: yet who hath any thing but of thy gift? Thou payeſt debts, when thou oweſt nothing: Thou forgiveſt debts, and yet thou loſeſt nothing. And what ſhall I ſay, O my God, my life, my joy, my holy, dear delight? Or what can any man ſay, when he ſpeaketh of thee? And, woe be to them that ſpeak not of thee, but are ſilent in thy praiſe: for even they who ſpeak moſt of thee, may be accounted to be but dumb. Have mercy upon me, O Lord, that I may ſpeak unto thee, and praiſe thy Name. Amen.

A Prayer wherewith to conclude all our Devotions.

ALmighty God, who haſt promiſed to hear the petitions of them that ask in thy Son's Name; I beſeech thee mercifully to encline thine ears unto me, who have made now my prayers and ſupplications unto thee: and grant that thoſe things which I have faithfully aſk-

ed

ed according to thy will, may be effectually obtained, to the relief of my neceſſity, and to the ſetting forth of thy glory, through Ieſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

The Bleſſing.

THe Peace of God which paſſeth all underſtanding; the bleſſing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghoſt; the virtue of Chriſt's bleſſed Croſs and Paſſion be with me, now and at the hour of death. Amen.
